COMPANY A JOLLIFICATION.
 Entertained at the Delta Upsilon House—Dr. Pound Recites History of Military Drill.
 The officers and men of Company A gathered at the Delta Upsilon house last Saturday evening and spent four hours getting better acquainted and becoming charged with enthusiasm for competitive drill day. Cards, music and cigars were the principal features of the evening.

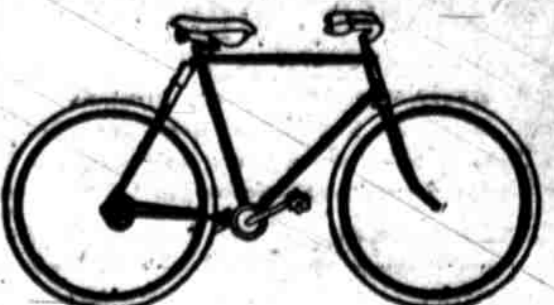

With true A Company spirit, a number of the former officers of the company were present, going back as far as Dean Roscoe Pound, who was captain in 1888.
 After the refreshments had disappeared, Dean Pound gave a brief sketch of military life at the University in his day, which saw practically the beginning of our military department. He recounted the long and glorious record of A Company, including the winning of the Omaha cup in the national competitive drill at Omaha in 1892. He was followed by "Chaplain" George Bartlett, who told a number of laughable incidents of camp life. Letters containing best wishes for the company's success were received and read from Captain (now Congressman) E. M. Pollard, '93, H. A. Lukey, '01, and Newton Buckley, '03. After these, Capt. A. H. Lundin, '04, made a stirring appeal for even more enthusiasm and Major Crites, '06, made the closing speech of the evening.

Residences of Students.
 The residence of men and women students in the same lodging houses (as distinguished from families) is not approved and not, as a rule, permitted.
 A landlady rooming women students is expected to provide for their use, till-half after ten on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, a reception room properly warmed and lighted.
 Women students in these houses will receive gentlemen callers only in the reception rooms. Gentlemen will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. REGISTRAR.

The girls of the Physical Training department were entertained at a dinner Saturday afternoon by Misses Nellie Miller and Margie Richards at the home of the former.

FOR SALE—A new $30 dress suit for $20. Inquire at Nebraskan office Thursday at chapel time.
