May Music Festival.
 Subscribers for season tickets to the Thomas Orchestra concerts are given this week in which to reserve their seats. No single admissions will be sold until May 14. The programs arranged by the conductor, Frederick A. Stock, have been received and include the march and chorus from "Tannhauser" and Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5." The chorus under Mrs. Raymond, now numbering 230, will take part in the chorus from "Tannhauser" the first evening and "Olav Trygvasson" the second evening. The soloists are: Charlotte Maconda, soprano; Grace Munson, contralto; Glenn Hall, tenor; Herbert Witherpoon, bass; Bruno Steindel, violin-cello; Van den Berg, pianist.
 Tickets at G. A. Crancer company, 1134 O street.

Residences of Students.
 The residence of men and women students in the same lodging houses (as distinguished from families) is not approved and not, as a rule, permitted.
 A landlady rooming women students is expected to provide for their use, till half after ten on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, a reception room properly warmed and lighted.
 Women students in these houses will receive gentlemen callers only in the reception rooms. Gentlemen will take notice and govern themselves accordingly. REGISTRAR.

Tom Watson's Magazine.
 "The magazine with a purpose back of it," was established to teach the best way of abolishing these special privileges, and, hence, of rendering the trusts powerless to rob the public. It is a big monthly magazine of 128 pages, with illustrations, cartoons, Mr. Watson's brilliant editorials, special articles, a serial story, novelettes, short stories and poems, by the world's best writers. Regular price, $1.00 per year; 10 cents the copy, at all newsstands. Everyone is interested in knowing the best way to cure the trust evil and how to bring it about. Now in its second volume, Tom Watson's Magazine is firmly established, and its circulation is growing rapidly; but we want to add a hundred thousand subscribers to our list in the next month or two.
