Today we meet Kansas on the baseball field. Let every student come out and help the varsity win. We must have this game.

Within the last year the University of Nebraska has done more building than in any other year of her existence. This is, indeed, to be expected since the growth of the school has been very rapid in every way. It is necessary that these buildings should be put up if we are to continue in this growth. But within another year or two the University campus will be so thoroughly crowded with buildings that the campus proper will be a non-entity.

The students are as anxious to see their alma mater prosper as any one associated with it. But a large and spacious campus is almost indispensa-

The Hoodoo man seems to be after the Kansans' scalp for fair lately, judging by editorials from various college papers and from their own rag.
The "Independent" and "Daily Iowan" claim that the chinning department of their respective institutions have gotten advanced cases of lock-jaw owing to the "Angelle" inclination of the "pious" Jayhawkers. Accordingly negotiations for the annual "confab" are off between the Iowa and Kansas Laws and the most radiant smile from the brightest sunflower that ever bloomed in the trust-ridden state could not convince the Missourians that they intended to do the square thing for Missouri needs to be shown.

Worse still, Kansas runs into ill luck in the face of her most important track events. On May 10 the captain of the track team, on whom Kansas depended for the 100-yard dash and the 440, sprained his ankle so severely that he was compelled to make the Columbia trip, and may not be able to work out any more this season.
This accident may deprive Kansas of first places in the 100 and 440 dashes and may lose the high jump for them, since Young will not enter the high jump as usual, in order to make a place in the 440 to try and save that event. "Cap" Young will be acting captain during Driscoll's absence.
This is unwelcome news for Nebraska, since "Hink" Winters does his best work when in fast company and is able to take care of the swift event.
Adolf Myer and Knede are losing no sleep over the high jump and would feel much more like going up some on the 26th if "Cap" Young would stick to his event and be in good form.

ble where three thousand students are gathered. They must have some place for recreation or half the pleasure of school life will vanish. Other schools have large campus privileges, consequently they look back with fond reollections upon their many pleasant times spent upon the campus. We don't say that the Nebraska students do not do this now, but there will be a time in the near future when the cramped condition of the campus will take away much of the pleasure of school life.

No complaint is filed against the Regents for their conduct in placing the buildings. But we feel arrangements should be made somehow so this system of jamming buildings in together could be broken up. Give the students a large, spacious campus and they will show their appreciation in more ways than one.

Foolishness???

Lest there be any misunderstanding as to the exact character of the so-called "Sophomore Foolishness" and the rules which are to govern the same, the committee wish to state that the "Sophomore Foolishness" is a combination of what were to be a class picnic and a Sophomore hop, and while wholesome foolishness in the superlative degree will prevail during the earlier part of the evening, at 9:30 the gavel will be turned over to the master of ceremonies and the Sophomore hop will be a reality. "Refreshments" will be on tap during the evening and the fact that the price of tickets has been cut to a minimum and that "escorts" will be out of order, eliminates all possible excuse for any Soph failing to enjoy his share of this climax of Sophomore functions.

Bernard Shaw's comedy, "You Never Can Tell," was presented by the Wisconsin Dramatic Club recently.
