The way in which the Beatrice people are treating the cadets show to a great extent the feeling that is prevalent all over the state. The University students are given as much consideration by the people in Nebraska as in any other state in the union.
This goes far to indicate the strong spirit of pride that exists in regard to the State University. And while the people are proud of their University and its students, the students in turn are proud of their state and its citizens.

Much credit is due the Senior play caste for the way they have worked and will work to give a good play on June 12th. For four months the members have studied and worried in order that their class might be proud of their annual performance. If it is successful much praise will be given

Former Nebraskan Winning Honors.

Walter Frederick Meier, 1903, who is practicing law at Spokane, Washington, is doing considerable public speaking. He recently addressed the Spokane high school on "The Demand for Character in Public and Private Life." The Spokane Evening Chronicle, in publishing the address at length, speaks highly of Mr. Meier.

Before taking up the practice of law last year, Mr. Meier was instructor of English in the Spokane high school, giving a good deal of attention to argumentation and debate. His instruction enabled Spokane to win the championship of that part of the Northwest and debate was made a part of the regular curriculum of that school. He has been frequently called upon to judge debate. He was prominent as a debater during his college course, being a member of the team that defeated Kansas in 1901, Missouri in 1902 and of the team which was to have debated with Colorado College in 1903. He assisted Professor Fogg in teaching argumentation in 1902 and 1903.

Part of Mr. Meier's study on the trust question was published in the American Journal of Sociology in 1903. "What Attitude Should Government Assume Toward the Trust Question?"

Miss Heppner to Teach.

Miss Heppner of the department of Germanics has consented to take the courses in German heretofore assigned to Prof. Augustus Kunze of Union College. Professor Kunze's sudden death a short time ago will be remembered by all. Miss Heppner's name forms a valuable addition to the Summer School faculty.

the caste, and we feel success will be the result. One thing is sure and that is if long continuous toil merits rewards the caste will be heavily laden after the 12th.

The play this year, "Prisoner of Zenda," is much more difficult than the one presented by last year's class and of a higher order than any previous Senior play. It is simply up to the members of the class to help make this function a success financially. Do not let the committee slave away without offering a helping hand. For the members of the play committee and caste have the most monotonous and thankless task that falls upon any member of the graduating class.

Every Senior should remember the 12th of June and boost the thing along.
"Push, don't knock."

Prof. C. N. Gould Lectures.

Prof. C. N. Gould, who has been doing graduate work in the University for the past year, lectured before two University classes lately. His first lecture was before the class in Geology II and the second one before Dr. Con-dra's class in Geography of United States. Professor Gould's subject for the second lecture was "Geography and Geology of the Southern Part of the Great Plains." Mr. Gould holds his professorship in the University of Oklahoma, and during his stay of one year in Nebraska has made many friends.

The union girls gave a reception to the senior girls Thursday afternoon in the Y. W. rooms. Punch and wafers were served. Souvenirs were distributed on which a likeness of Miss Vibbard, the secretary, was printed.
