

Stylish Clothes for Students

There is probably nowhere in the west a larger stock of Young Men's Suits, Overcoats and Cravenettes which, in style, quality and perfect tailoring, equal those to be found here at "The Students' Store." They are indeed "a step ahead of the hour." You'll be correctly dressed if you wear one this winter.

This store has enjoyed for years a large patronage from the University boys, and we feel very friendly toward them and will show them all the favors possible. Come in and see what is up-to-date before you buy.

DEBATE OUTLOOK.

all charts are debarred from the debate.

5. Each debater has seventeen minutes—twelve for opening and five for rebuttal. The negative opens the rebuttal.

6. Each university pays all the expenses of its own debaters. All other expenses of the contest shall be borne by the entertaining university.

7. The question is chosen in the following manner: On April 1 each university sends a question to each of the others; on April 15 each university sends the five questions to each of the others arranged in the order of its choice. The question ranked highest by all the universities shall be debated. In case of a tie the selection of the tieing questions shall be made by the president of Yale University.

The question for the debates this year, however, was chosen otherwise by agreement. The question is the following, which was originally submitted by Iowa last May, before the league was formed, for the Iowa-Minnesota debate: "Resolved, That the cities of the United States should seek the solution of the street-railway problem through private ownership." Each university will support both the affirmative and the negative—the affirmative at home, the negative away from home. Work on the question has already begun at some of the universities.

Preparation for the league debates, then, will be thrown forward into the first semester. How soon the preliminary debate and the selection of the Nebraska teams will take place, the University Debating Board will decide at an early date.

In the faculty membership in the Debating Board, Prof. George Elliott Howard, of the chair of political science and sociology, succeeds Prof. Edward A. Ross. Professor Howard brings to the Board large experience as adviser of intercollegiate debating at Stanford University. The faculty members, appointed by the Board of Regents of the University, are: Prof. H. W. Caldwell, American History; Prof. F. M. Fling, European History; Prof. M. M. Fogg, Rhetoric; Prof. F. C. French, Philology; Dean Roscoe Pound, of the College of Law, and Prof. W. G. Langworthy Taylor, Political Economy and Commerce. The student members have not yet been elected.

Sorority Pledges.

Altho the fraternities under the new regulations have been having a comparatively quiet registration week, rushing has been fast and furious among the sororities. The good natured rivalry has waxed exceeding warm in the struggle to secure certain desirable pledges. Altho returns are as yet by no means complete, we present below a list of pledges, as far as we have been able to learn them:

Delta Gamma: Helen McNeen, Katherine Kimball, Ruth Prentiss, Helen Mitchell, Hazel Vandenburg, Elma Milliken, Mary Cook and Jean Fleming.

Kappa Alpha Theta: Kate Field, Dorothy Miller, Mabel Dutch, Katharine Cline, Marie Barr, Rebecca Bailey and Helen Weston.

Pi Beta Phi: Sarah Martin, Mabel Lindell, Mildred Holland, Merna Sedgwick, Jessie Killian, Florence Chapman.

Chi Omega: Arta Kochen, Dessie

Pearson, Katherine Lewis and Ruth Stetter.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: Miss Helen Sholes, Miss Nesbit, Miss Ridell and Miss Juvenile.

Alpha Omicron Pi: Emily Trigg, Charlotte Wallace, Eunice Bauman, and Nellie Kitchen.

A complete list will be printed at the earliest possible date.

Spoonholders Filled With Books.

Political Economy and Philosophy alcoves are no more. A hard-hearted Librarian has desecrated the precincts hallowed from time immemorial by the "whispers" of love-lorn couples.

Books, common, ordinary books, have usurped the field and the haughty Senior, in search of his Freshman "crush," must henceforth keep his date under the eyes of the entire Library.

The romance of the Library will soon be a thing of the past, recalled only in the "josh" department of the "Cornhusker." No longer will members of the Glee Club sing to their lady loves before going to rehearsal, "Just Keep a Little Cozy Corner in the Libra-ree for Me," nor will there be the sound of a stealthy "Sh-h," as footsteps in the stack room-corridor proclaim the advent of our genial friend, Mr. Witte.

So here's to the memory of Pol. Econ. and Philosophy alcoves. Re-quescent in Pace."

Forestry.

Students who have registered for course 5, Forest Measurements, and course 7, Forest Utilization, are requested to meet in Room 105, Nebraska Hall, for a few minutes Wednesday, at 1:00. As the hours for these courses are to be arranged at that time, it is important that all who have registered for them should be present.

Those who have registered for course 9, Teacher's Course, will meet for the first time Wednesday at 5:00. F. G. MILLER.
