Can you converse
 Intelligently regarding any book you may have been reading—as if you had really read it up completely? Well, a novel, a poem, a history, a biography, a drama, an oration, a sermon, or any other literary production, if read or studied as our new book tells one how, becomes a subject which one can discuss or write about in a thoroughly intelligent and comprehensive way.

GRIDIRON TALK.
 graduate was able to do anything but talk football ten days before the game was played. The papers took it up. The Board of Trade took it up and bet enormous sums on the outcome. It was football everywhere. The faculty and University proper, in the meantime, were entirely forgotten.
 Mr. Meggs played in the Maroon line last season and was perhaps one of the strongest men in his position last year. He is one of the most "likely" looking athletes who has visited Nebraska for some time. He will not return to Chicago this year, however, being the traveling representative of an eastern manufacturing company.
 While in the city Mr. Meggs was the guest of J. K. Morrison, manager of the football team last year.

W. C. A. rooms.

Law Contracts for Engineers.
 Students desiring to take Jurisprudence 11, Law Contracts for Engineers, will meet Professor Morse Thursday at 1 o'clock in M 212, to arrange for the class. This will probably be given as a two-hour course, involving lectures and text-book work, using the text-book, and outlines followed at Cornell University. It will necessitate no library work, the text being sufficient to cover the work taken. The course is strongly recommended for Junior and Senior Engineers who can arrange to take it. Five o'clock two days a week has been suggested as a recitation hour that will accommodate nearly everyone.

Nebraska at Other Law Schools.
 The University of Nebraska is to be well represented this year at the leading law schools of the country by men who took their preliminary training here. Mr. Mason Wheeler goes to the Columbia Law School, New York; Mr. John L. Clark and Charles Sawyer to Harvard; Mr. Clement L. Waldron and Mr. Eugene Brookings to the University of Wisconsin, and Mr. Allen W. Field, son of Judge A. W. Field of this city, to Leland Stanford.
 Nebraska men in the past have stood in the front rank at other institutions to which they have gone, and no less is expected of the men who have gone away this year. Nebraska "expects every man to do his duty."

For Will-Be Teachers.
 The action of the University Senate at its meeting last Friday permits a somewhat greater freedom of choice in required studies to candidates for teachers' certificates than was formerly allowed. Courses in Logic, Introduction to Philosophy, and Ethics are now added to the list of those from which the student may choose substitutes for Philosophy 2.

Swell, snappy $3.50 and $4.00 shoes. Sanderson's.

REGULARS IN LINCOLN.
Tenth and Thirtieth Batteries, U. S. Artillery, at Fair Grounds.
 Drill was excused at 5:15 yesterday afternoon to permit the cadets to go to the State Fair grounds, where two batteries of artillery of the regular army are temporarily encamped. These two batteries, the Tenth and Thirtieth, under the command of Captains Overton and Straub, respectively, form the Tenth Battalion of U. S. Artillery, with Major Allen in command.
 They are en route to their post at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, from Fort Riley, where they have recently taken part in the annual maneuvers. They go to Omaha from here, having left Lincoln at 6 o'clock this morning, and will give an exhibition drill at the street fair and carnival about to open in Omaha.
 The batteries have with them the usual marching equipment, including eight guns, 220 horses, ambulance and hospital corps and a complete pack outfit.
 At the State Fair grounds yesterday afternoon only the ceremonies of Retreat and Guard Mount were given. The soldiers report the best of treatment from farmers and other citizens en route, especially in Nebraska.
 The Nebraska militia, the boys say, is the best they have seen this summer.
 The officers of the battalion dined with Captain Workizer last evening.

Senior Class Meeting.
 The first meeting of the Senior class will not be held on Thursday of this week as was announced in yesterday's Nebraskan. No suitable room could be secured owing to the Y. W. C. A. mass meeting which is to be held in Memorial Hall at 11 o'clock.
 The class will meet in Memorial Hall on Tuesday, October 2, at the Convocation hour and election of officers for the semester will be the chief business proposed.
 No new candidates have appeared for the office of President but there is some talk of the possibility of nominating a certain popular young lady of the class. After the experience of the class of '06 last year with its freedom from contention and its competent committees, many of the members of '07 feel that the election of a young lady as president for the first semester would go far toward assuring a successful outcome of the present year.

Pershing Election.
 The Pershing Rifles last night elected the following officers:
 Captain.....F. A. Anderson
 1st Lieutenant.....C. D. Slaughter
 2nd Lieutenant.....D. C. Wilson
 1st Sergeant.....B. E. Yoder
 2nd Sergeant.....H. A. Joslin
 3rd Sergeant.....F. A. Crites
 4th Sergeant.....R. E. Guthrie

 Secretary.....T. F. Mueller
 A letter congratulating him upon his promotion from the rank of Captain was sent to Brigadier General J. J. Pershing, founder of the Pershing Rifles, and one of the most popular commandants the Department has ever had.

Dean Pound at Bar Convention.
 One of the best received of the three addresses delivered before the meeting of the American Bar Association at St. Paul last month was the paper by Dean Roscoe Pound of the Law School. Dr. Pound's subject was "Causes of Popular Dissatisfaction With the Administration of Justice."
