THE GAME TODAY

HARD TUSSELE WITH SOUTH DAKOTA EXPECTED.

Teams Evenly Matched—Both Light—
Lineup of Game—Last Night's Practise.

Excitement prevails in football circles today. From what we hear of South Dakota's team, the boys from the north are coming here with the expectation of making us hustle for any glory that we may get out of the game. There is no doubt that the two teams as they will appear on the field today, are almost matched, as far as weight is concerned, for, from statistics, both teams will average a little more than 164 pounds to the man. Evidently, beef and brawn are not going to win the game for us, but science and speed.

The new game will be tested today in a way that was not possible in last Saturday's game. The advantage of weight being eliminated, recourse will be had to the new, snappy plays that are allowable under the new rules.

Advices from Vermillion indicate that the South Dakota team is much stronger than last year. Coach Whittemore says his men are in excellent condition and will play to win.

The Varsity's final practise last night was devoted almost entirely to signal work, winding up with a short period of secret signal practise in the Gymnasium.

The two scrub teams which have been faithfully hammering away all week, were lined up against each other for a short game. They were very evenly matched and a fierce contest followed. Fumbles characterized the play and the ball changed hands frequently. The only score was made by a field goal from drop kick by Hawley, whose kicking and running with the ball was the feature of the game.

Freshmen Politics.

Politics are growing warmer and warmer in the Freshmen class. The usual squabbles between towns is on. So far, candidates for president are Hesketh, an old academy man, whose home is in Iowa; George M. Wallace, of Omaha, and possibly McDonald, of York. This year a new development has appeared in that some of the factions are making out complete tickets for all officers in the gift of the class. It is rumored that various dark horses will be sprung at the meeting.

GLEE CLUB TRIP

MANAGER AGEE ANNOUNCES DEFINITE WESTERN TOUR.

Credit for Work on Club Increased—
Tryouts Announced—More Applications Wanted.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs held their first business meeting Thursday night and discussed their plans for the coming year. Manager Agee presented a very bright outlook for a big trip in the spring. He said that he could promise as something that could be absolutely depended upon, a trip thru Colorado and southern Wyoming. Beyond that, all will depend on the men themselves.

If the old men stand by the club as they did last year and the new men follow their example it is hoped that the trip may be extended as far as Salt Lake City. "Now this," the manager emphatically concluded, "is no pipe dream nor hot air blast, such as we lived upon last year, but a straight business proposition backed by cold facts and cold dollars. The facts we have and the dollars are where we can get them by merely taking them."

Chancellor Andrews and Registrar Clark have promised that the credit for the work will be increased from one hour for the year to two, putting the Glee Club on a par with the University Chorus as far as credit is concerned. This fact is expected to bring more men out for the tryouts than could otherwise be expected since it will lessen the number of hours that a candidate will feel himself required to carry in order to hold his own in the University.

Tryouts will begin on Monday night, when the tenors will be put thru their paces, and will last thruout the week. Each man who has filled out an application blank will be notified by postal when to appear but tenors are hereby notified to show up Monday evening at 7:30 in Memorial Hall.

The old men are already busy with rehearsals for an early appearance at Convocation. In doing this the Club is doing what no other Glee Club has ever done in the history of the University. Ordinarily there have not been enough men back to make an early appearance a possibility. The date for their appearance is to be posted shortly.

College Settlement Election.
