

The Daily Nebraskan

Vol. VI. No. 12.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN; TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1906.

Price 5 Cents.

A NARROW ESCAPE

NEBRASKA DEFEATS SOUTH DAKOTA IN HARD FOUGHT GAME.

Field Goal by McDonald Gives Only Score—Lack of Team Work Spoils Chance of Decisive Victory.

Nebraska 4, South Dakota 0.

Much to the surprise of the rooters, Saturday furnished one of the most closely contested games ever seen on Nebraska Field. Nebraska not only met with stiff opposition from South Dakota, but had the hardest kind of work to pull the game out of the fire, only managing to score a field goal

JUNIORS ELECT TODAY.

No Contest Expected—Hughes Only Candidate for Presidency.

The Junior class is enjoying a respite from the storms which have hitherto made its political life a sea of troubled waters. So far only one candidate for the presidency has been announced definitely. This is "Mike" Hughes. However, it is rumored that A. H. Miller, a doughty football man, will contest for the office.

The meeting is to be held at Convocation hour this morning in Memorial Hall. A large attendance of the class is desired.

Joint Debate.

A meeting of the Jeffersonian club will be called in the near future by

NEW BOOK BY DR. CONDRA.

"The Geography of Nebraska" Title of Book of General Interest.

Professor G. E. Condra of the department of Geography and Economic Geology is the author of a new book which has just appeared in print. It is entitled "The Geography of Nebraska," and is not intended to be a college text book but rather for the general reading public.

Dr. Condra was induced to write the book by seeing the ignorance prevalent in one section of the state concerning some other section. He is especially fitted to write such a book, having surveyed sixteen different counties in Nebraska in the service of the government.

The book is being very favorably

WHAT OTHERS DO

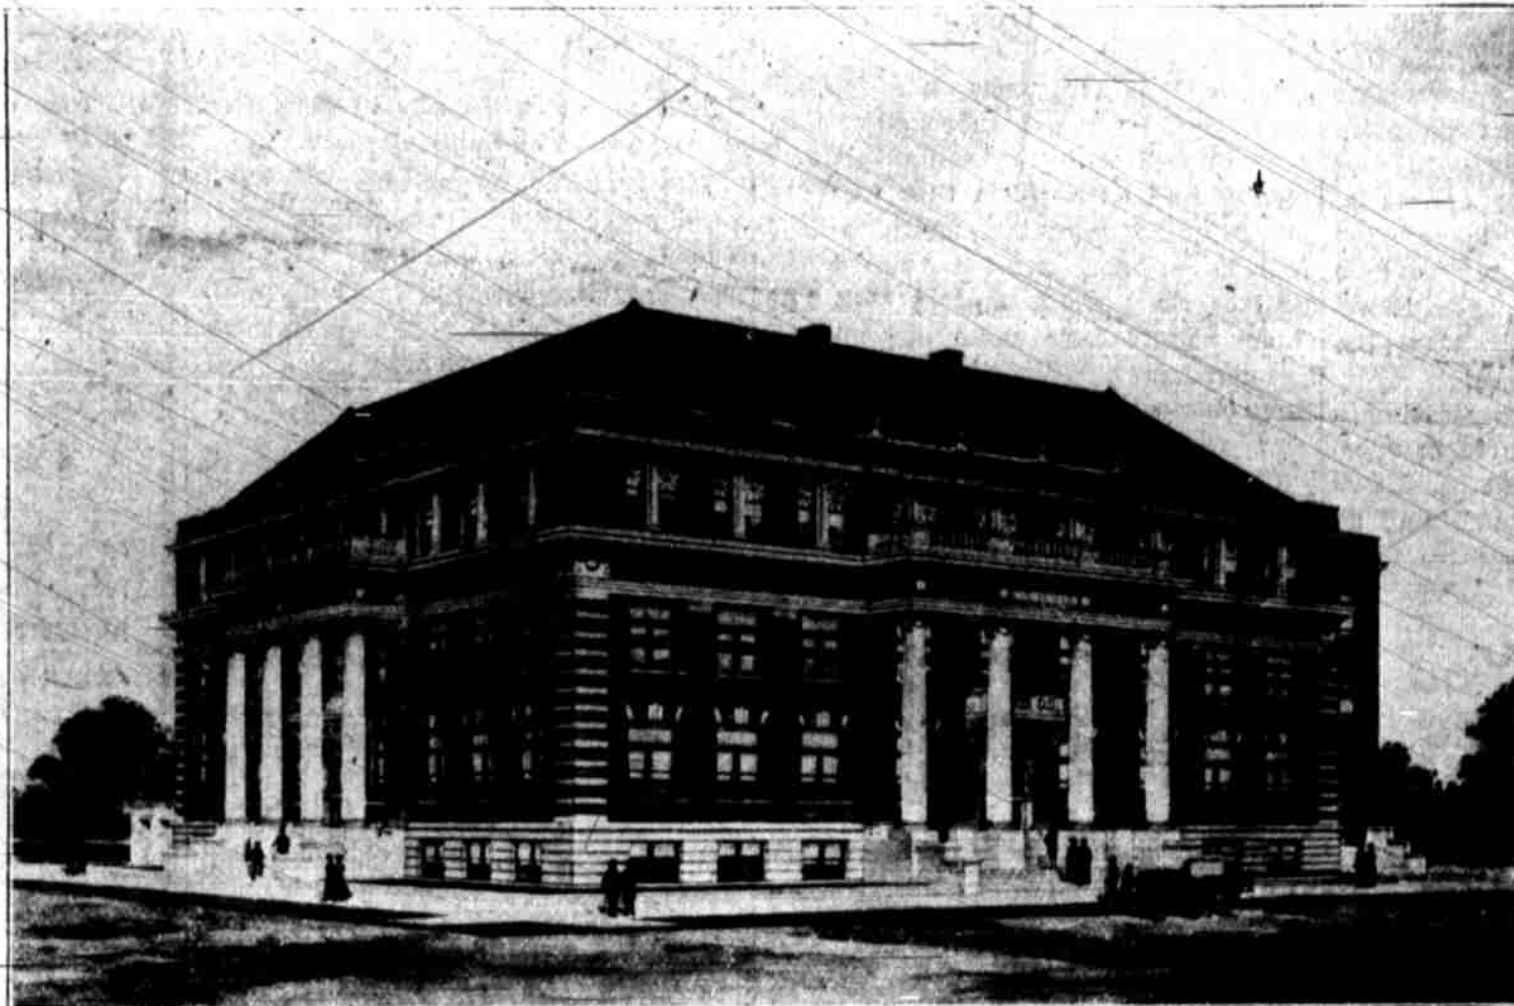

INTERESTING CUSTOMS THAT PREVAIL ELSEWHERE.

Sophomore—Freshmen Rushes—Other Details of Class Rivalry as Told by Our Exchanges.

Much has been said lately of the decadence of the ancient custom of college hazing. The following clippings from our exchanges show the starting progress of this reform:

At Michigan.

Freshmen coated with paste and covered over with pretty autumn leaves were on exhibition on State street at and that not till well on in the second half.

THE UNIVERSITY TEMPLE

It must be admitted that, in large measure, the team's difficulty in winning was due to its own poor work. Owing to missed signals, slowness in lining up and lack of concert between the line and back-field, Nebraska's formation plays proved ineffective and she was forced to resort to straight line bucks, which proved insufficient to score against South Dakota's strong defense.

Poor handling of punts and fumbling also lost much ground for Nebraska and to make matters worse the team suffered heavily from penalties. However, Nebraska's defense proved very satisfactory, piling up the Dakota men on practically every attempt to gain and allowing them to make first down but once.

The features of the game were the
(Continued on page 4.)

THE UNIVERSITY TEMPLE.

The University Temple, situated diagonally across the street from the southeast corner of the campus, has been in process of erection all summer and rapid progress has been made. When completed it will have cost $100,000.00 and will be one of the finest buildings of its kind in the country.

D. P. DeYoung for the purpose of considering the challenge issued by the Republican club for a joint debate on the issues of the present campaign. At the present writing it seems highly probable that the Jeffersonian club will accept the challenge.

Engineering Society.

The Engineering Society will hold its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, October 10, at 7:30 p. m. in M 211. The election of officers will be the chief business of the meeting. All members are urged to be present.

The Temple will be used for religious purposes as well as for a gathering place for the students of the University. It will have a large auditorium besides many specially arranged rooms for the various organizations of the University public, and is expected to become the center of the social life in the University.

received. Professor Davis of Harvard, Ex-Chancellor Canfield, new Librarian at Cornell, and others have written flattering testimonials and it bids fair to have a wide reading since it is the only comprehensive work on the subject in publication.

Zoological Club.

The Zoological Club holds its first meeting of the year tonight at 8:00 p. m. in M 301. Dr. Ward will lecture on his trip to Alaska. All students, members of the Faculty, and their friends are invited to attend.

an early hour yesterday morning.

It was a climax of another skirmish between the underclassmen in the "proc." war. The first-year men were defeated at every turn, for the sophomores put up their "Black Friday" posters and prevented the freshmen from placing "profane hands" upon the edicts.

The sophs were first in the field and were busily engaged in pasting up their posters when the "tens" appeared. The freshmen were put to rout and eight of their number made prisoners. To this octette of freshmen was delegated the task of carrying the soph paste buckets. When they had completed this task they were relieved of most of their apparel and given a bath in paste. The finishing touches were put on with dry leaves. Then, looking very much like primitive men, the captives were lib-

(Continued on page 3.)