WHAT OTHERS DO
erated. They wasted little time in traversing the distance between State street and their respective homes.
The soph. proclamations are lurid affairs, teeming with alliteration and making awful threats against the "tens." They are pronounced the best posters put out in recent years.
State street shopkeepers were out early Monday morning washing posters and paste from their windows and sidewalks. Many of the posters, however, were pasted in inaccessible places, and these remained untouched.
The following is the inflammatory poster that means a challenge for the big rush Friday night:
Ye Freshmen, Attention!
Foolish Freaks of Frightened Freshmen, Forget your Former Fathers and the Farm, and Fall Fore the Floating Flag of Free Fellowship.
Run, ye Rotten Rabble of Rumped Rummies, before the Royal Rule of the Ripping, Rollicking, Remarkable Class of 1909.
On and Out of the Orbs of Our Oscil-lating Optical Organs, ye Ossified Ourang Outangs.
Skidoo, ye Sappy Suckling Simpletons, and Salaam to the Surpassing Supremacy of the Swarthy Sophomores.
Hike and Hunt, ye Hopeless, Hungry Hooslers, and Humble yourselves to the following rules of the Husky Host of Honored 1909.
Then follow the rules by which the Freshmen are commanded to wear the Freshman cap, enjoined against smoking on the campus and against going out after day before Friday, against going into Joe Parker's, against wearing red neckties or celuloid collars, etc.
The appointed hour for Friday night is 7:23.—Michigan Daily.

At Syracuse.
The matter of the freshmen and sophomores failing to wear their caps is taking a rather significant form.
College custom is supposed to be respected by all, and when the upper-classes have adopted any reasonable rules they are to be observed and obeyed.
It was especially observable at the football game that a large number of freshment were not wearing their class cap. The rule is that freshmen shall wear the regulation green cap at all times except Sundays. This disobedience on the part of the entering class is a spirit of disloyalty which has not been manifest here before. Not only is the failure to wear a green cap to be considered, but also what will this indifference to the rules of the upperclasses finally lead to if this disregard on the part of the entering class is going to be permitted to continue.
Sophomores, you might do well to remember that anything other than a green cap is out of place on a fresh-man's head while on the campus or at any college game or function.—Syracuse Orange.

Candidates for the cross country squad are beginning to appear and it is hoped that sufficient interest may develop to secure a strong team to send to Chicago on Thanksgiving.
Professors E. A. Burnett and H. R.
Smith of the Department of Animal Husbandry left last night for Kansas City to attend a stock show.
Delta Upsilon held an informal dance at the chapter house on Saturday evening. An exceptionally pleasant evening is reported by those who were present.
