

The Daily Nebraskan

Vol. VI. No. 14.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN; THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1906.

Price 5 Cents.

FOOTBALL RALLY

FIRST FOOTBALL MASS MEETING TODAY IN MEMORIAL HALL.

Speeches by Coach Foster, Captain Workizer and Others—Music by Band—Dr. Pound to Preside.

The first football rally of the year will be held in Memorial Hall at Convocation hour this morning. A program of unusual interest has been prepared and a crowd that will overflow the room is confidently expected. Dr. Pound will preside as he has so often done in the past and there will be speeches by men specially prepared to talk on football topics.

Saturday is planned. A large number of students are expecting to accompany their team and promise to give Nebraska some instruction in vigorous rooting. Their team is more or less an unknown quantity, even to themselves, since it has had no game that was a true test of its prowess, but, according to Coach Bell, there is a good chance to give the Cornhuskers a hard game.

New Assistant Trainer.

The Athletic Board has appointed Ferdinand Menifee assistant football trainer to succeed Fred Coe, who has held that position since the opening of the season. Mr. Menifee entered upon his duties the first of the week.

For Sale—Gymnasium suit, nearly new, lady's; size 36, $2.—1600 P St.

FOOTBALL SONGS.

For Use at the Mass Meeting This Morning.

Cheer for Nebraska, Nebraska must win,
Fight to the finish, never give in,
You do your best, boys, we'll do the rest, boys,
Fight for the victory.

—Coach Foster.

As the backs go tearing by
On their way to do or die
Many sighs, many tears
Mingled with Nebraska's cheers.
As the backs go tearing by
Making gain on steady gain
Echo swells the sweet refrain
Nebraska's going to win today
Nebraska sure must win today
As the backs go tearing by.

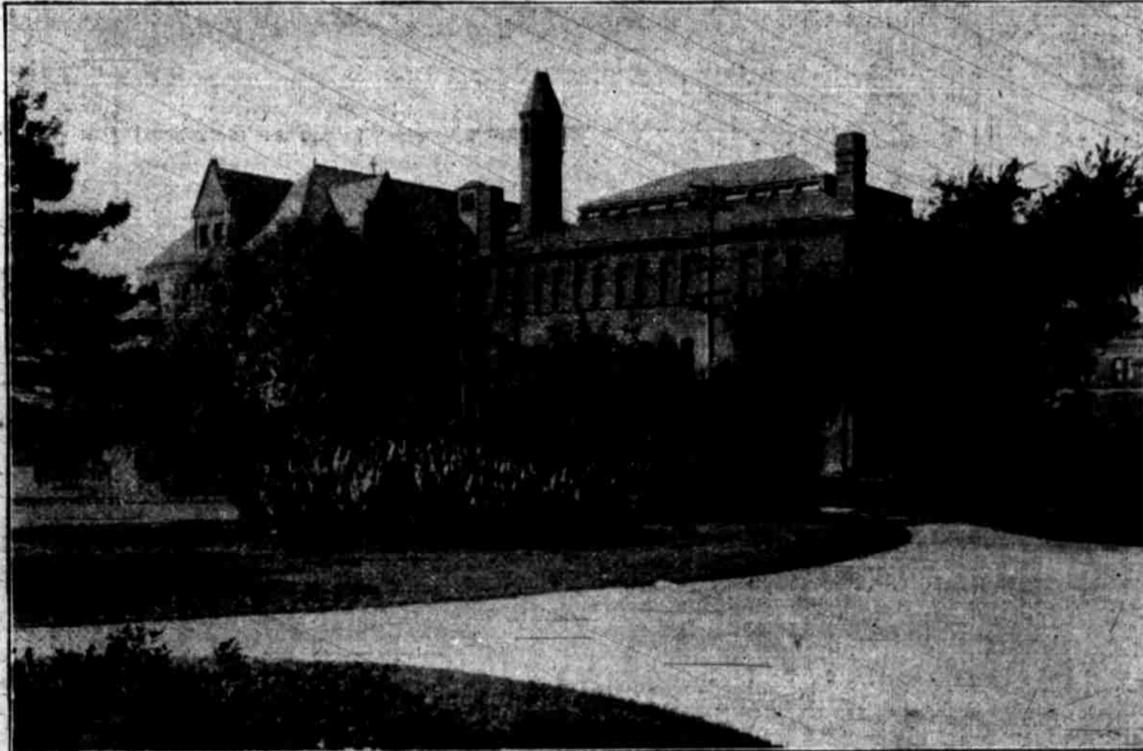

McVey Printing company does the best University work at 125 No. 12th.

HENRIK IBSEN

PROFESSOR FOSSLER DELIVERS AN INTERESTING LECTURE.

Discusses the Great Dramatist—His Character—His Philosophy—His Purpose.

Henrik Ibsen was the subject of an interesting talk by Professor Fossler at Convocation yesterday morning. In speaking of this celebrated writer, who died last spring, Professor Fossler said that the study of his life and works was so extensive that many know him only by name. Henrik Ibsen has given many good writings not only to the nation, but to the whole

LIBRARY HALL

Among the speakers will be Coach Foster, Commandant Workizer, and Dr. Bolton. The band will render several selections and it is possible that a quartette from the Glee Club may be on hand to contribute their part to the "tout ensemble."

The purpose of the rally is to concentrate the enthusiasm for football in the University that exists now only in small quantities scattered thru the student body. The rooting leaders will be on hand to lead the yells and it is expected that two new football songs will be given their initial try-out. One of these is a production from Coach Foster's fertile brain, and is set to a well known air. This fact alone is expected to draw large crowds of the co-eds to the rally.

Reports from Drake indicate that the team there has the enthusiastic support of the entire student body and that an excursion to Lincoln on next

Library Hall.

Library Hall is probably as fine a library building as will be found on the campus of any university in the west.

It was built in 1896 and contains the University Library and its seminar rooms, the museum and library of the Nebraska State Historical Society, the Fine Arts Gallery, and the rooms of the departments of Fine Arts, European History, the English Language and Literature, Philosophy, and Political Economy and Public Finance.

Altho the main reading room accommodates 300, it is quite probable that additional tables and benches will have to be installed in the near future so crowded are the students for room. A like condition also prevails in the stack room, where there is a marked shortage of shelves.

INTERNATIONAL SECRETARY.

Mr. McMillan Will Address Y. M. C. A. Students Sunday.

Mr. McMillan, International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will address University students in Memorial Hall next Sunday afternoon. As Mr. McMillan is one of the leaders in the Y. M. C. A. field, it is expected that many students will attend the lecture.

Secretary McMillan will come to Lincoln primarily to attend the annual convention of the Nebraska University

Young Men's Christian Associations, which is to be held here this week.

The first meeting of the convention will be held at the University, Friday, and continue until Saturday, when the convention will adjourn to Cotner University.

Representatives from Grand Island, Hastings, Bellvue, Doane, Wesleyan, and Cotner, as well as a number of secretaries from neighboring states, will attend the convention, which is expected to be the most enthusiastic ever held in Nebraska.

world, and yet some people regard his teachings as immoral. Such wrong opinions are based upon the inadequate judgment of those who have eyes, but see not, and ears but do not hear. It is easy to put the stigma of immorality upon those who disturb our soul's tranquillity and peace.

Ibsen portrays modern conditions and problems, showing life in a variety of aspects. He really knows men and women. Fearlessly he exposes the sordidness of men in their struggles for wealth and power, and glories in making men feel their shortcomings. He is an idealist and is severe in making demands on man's better nature. The standards of life set by ourselves are too low. Ibsen tells us to live up to our ideals and have our wills direct our actions. He asks us directly, "What is good? What is evil?" It is not enough to eschew

(Continued on page 4.)