THE BIG RALLY

FOOTBALL ENTHUSIASM AT HIGH PITCH YESTERDAY.

News From Drake—Quality of Team Unknown—Practise Here Shows Progress.

The chapel was filled to overflowing yesterday morning with a most vociferous crowd bubbling over with football enthusiasm. From the time the first few gathered until the last of the crowd left the building there was an almost continuous outburst of old-time football enthusiasm that has made Nebraska famous the country over.

Dr. Pound was the presiding officer

The University School of Music.

The home of the University School of Music is situated at the corner of Eleventh and R streets, immediately adjoining the University campus. It combines in its three stories and basement ample facilities for the work carried on within it.

Besides the offices of the executive department, the building contains two large parlors, two large recitation rooms and ten instruction rooms, as well as complete dormitory facilities for its students.

Fred Dorman, M. E. '01, formerly instructor in descriptive geometry in the University and who has been foreman of apprentices with the Allis-Chalmers Company since 1904, has been a campus visitor for the past week. Mr. Dorman is on his way to Denver where a position is awaiting him.

with the prize winning words on the Friday preceding each of the two games.

Words should be written for the entire song, including verse and chorus, and one complete stanza is all that is wanted.

It is hoped that by this method a song may be secured for each of the games that will rival in effectiveness the parody on "Molly O" that was used in the game with Colorado last year.

It is hoped also that a large number of students will compete and so work up their football enthusiasm to the boiling point.

Basket Ball.

Dr. Clapp wishes to announce that in addition to practise on Tuesday and Thursday at 4 p. m. basket ball practise will be held at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday as well.

and at first, the chief rooters being absent, led the rooting. In response to the vigorous demands of the crowd Dr. Bolton appeared on the platform and after receiving an ovation of several minutes duration, made a few remarks in his usual optimistic vein. Coach Foster then made a rousing speech in which he exhorted the students to maintain that reputation for football spirit for which Nebraska is noted thruout the country. As usual the band contributed materially to the success of the occasion with its spirited music.

The meeting was marked by the try-out of new songs and yells. These seemed to go very successfully and should add materially to the equipment of the rooters.

Advices from Drake, our next opponent, indicate that so far the development of its team has been rather
