FARMERS TODAY

THREE HUNDRED AMES ROOTERS WILL ARRIVE THIS MORNING.

Probable Line Up—Nebraska's Condition Encouraging—Hard Fight Is Assured.

Ames is feeling good over the prospect of today's game. The Ames rooters will invade Lincoln over two hundred strong and our bleachers will be kept busy answering the enthusiastic farmers. As for the team itself, little can be said with authority, as no line-up can be obtained directly from the Ames management. During the past week Ames has practiced diligently in breaking up Nebraska's defense.

Right TackleBrugger
Right EndMcElhinney
QuarterbackJaenson
Left HalfbackSloux Jones
Right HalfbackBillier
FullbackReppert

Besides this line-up, they will have numerous substitutes, as about twenty-four men are coming.

Our own line-up will be changed considerably. McDonald being still out of the game, Little will probably be shifted to end and Weller will fill out the back field. With Bill Johnson on the other end, there is no reason why the Cornhuakers should not make things interesting for the Cyclones. The team as a whole is in good condition, as the cripples have almost recuperated and expect to give a good account of themselves this afternoon.

UNIVERSITY FORUM ELECTS.

Eight Men Elected to Membership in the New Debating Club.

Yesterday morning the University Forum met and elected new members. Eight men, whose work in the line of debate and public speaking has been of a high order, were voted into the Club: A. E. Burr, Arthur Jorgenson, Byron E. Yoder, H. L. Swan, A. L. Corey, William C. Ramsey, R. C. Hunter, and D. P. DeYoung. The charter members who are still in the University are C. C. McWhinney, C. A. Sunderlin, J. M. Swenson, S. M. Rlnaker, G. M. Tunison, A. C. Hough, J. O. Wentworth and Hugh W. Craig.

The Forum was organized by the members of last year's debating squad to do serious work in the line of de-

THE CHEMICAL LABORATORY

The rooters are jubilant at the manner in which their squad rips open the scrubs' line, who play "a la Nebraska," as seen by their coach in the Drake game. Perhaps Foster will have a few new plays to show the visitors today, however.

With the exception of Henninger, the end, who is laid up with an injured hand, Ames will play her strongest team against us with the following line-up:

Left EndBarber
Left TackleMills
Left GuardNelson
CenterPlager
Right GuardThayer

The Chemical Laboratory.
The Chemical Laboratory, which is situated near the southeast corner of the campus, was built in 1884. In 1904 it was thoroly remodeled, so that now

Distinguished Visitors.
Mrs. W. J. Bryan visited the University yesterday forenoon with S. Haseba, M. P., and Y. B. Yamachita of Tokyo, Japan.

Mr. Yamachita attended the University of Nebraska, taking special work, from 1900 to 1904. Later he entered Waseda College, Tokyo, Japan. Mr. Haseba will remain in the city until Monday.

it is one of the best equipped buildings of its character to be found at any college. The building contains the libraries, lecture rooms, and laboratories of the department of Chemistry.

bate and effective public speaking, special attention being given to the latter.

Teachers Adopt New Spelling.
The teachers of Lancaster county passed a resolution at their last association favoring the adoption of the simple spelling as represented by the list of 300 words, recommended by the Simplified Spelling Board.

McLaughlin, E. A. Froyd, Paul Bell, W. R. King, G. L. Sullivan, E. F. Huse, C. C. McWhinney, Agnes Langevin, Pearl Fitzgerald, Ellen True.

Football Manager—F. W. Turner.
Football Coaches—T. H. Matters, J. B. Harvey.

Basket-ball Manager—F. A. Crites.
Football practise will begin at once and the prospects for a strong team are very bright. The outlook for a winning basket-ball team is also very encouraging. Three of last year's team are still in school and will do their best to develop a champion team. At the meeting next Thursday the class hat question will be considered and the matter of holding a class party will also be discussed.
