Subjects for the Second Argument Announced.

Subjects not in the following list
 must be approved:

1. Does the fraternity-non-fraternity cleavage on college questions subserve the interests of University life?
2. Should Lincoln adopt a park system?
3. Should fraternity or sorority rushing at the University of Nebraska be permitted the first semester?
4. Should there be a training table for the University football team?
5. Should political parties accept campaign contributions from corporations?
6. Is the "talented-money" argument against accepting donations to religious, educational or philanthropic institutions sound?
7. Should military drill at the University of Nebraska be made elective?
8. Do secret societies in high schools (or in High School) justify themselves?
9. Should the cities of the United States seek the solution of the street-railway problem through municipal ownership?
10. Should the use of the injunction in labor disputes be prohibited?
11. Should the president of the United States be elected for six years and be ineligible for re-election?
12. Should the federal government regulate interstate life insurance business?
13. In civil cases should questions of fact be decided by the court instead of
 by a jury?
14. Was the passage of the Fifteenth Amendment wise?
15. Should the Bible be read in the public schools?
16. Should Cuba be annexed to the United States?
17. Should corporal punishment be practiced in the public schools?
18. Should intercollegiate football be confined to college grounds?
19. Should the army canteen be re-established?
20. Should Lincoln adopt the two-platoon police system?
21. Should Nebraska furnish free text-books to pupils in the public schools?
22. Should simplified spelling be introduced into Nebraska public schools?
23. Should capital punishment be abolished in Nebraska?
24. Should Nebraska elect its United States senators by direct vote of the people?
25. Should judges of the United States Supreme Court be appointed for fixed terms rather than for life?
26. Should the present policy of in-
27. Is so-called student government in high schools a good thing?
28. Has the institution of college athletics reached the stage where it demands the services of the student instead of serving him?
29. Should the right to vote be limited to persons who can read and write?
30. Should voting be made compulsory in Nebraska?

M. M. FOGG.

The College Settlement Board met yesterday morning at chapel time in Dr. Bolton's office. It decided to have its regular meeting the first Tuesday of each month in the city Y. M. C. A. building. Prof. Smith, the president of the Board announced the following committees:

Finance—Mr. Hardy, Prof. Caldwell,
 Prof. Smith, Miss Andrews.

Building and property—Prof. Fossler, Mr. Stephens, and the new city member to be elected.

Work and workers—Prof. Dann,
 Mrs. Field, Miss Zmimer, Mr. Aaron.

Cornhusker Copy.

A box has been placed just inside the south entrance to University Hall and a second in the office room of the Cornhusker, room 7, basement Administration Building, for students of the University to deposit anything they desire to have published in the 1907 Cornhusker. The editor asks that every student who knows a "joke" to write it up and place it in one of these boxes or hand it to a member of the staff. Copy of this nature can only be secured by the co-operation of the students.
