Latin Reception.
The annual reception to Latin students was given Tuesday evening at Hays hall. There were about one hundred and fifty persons present, probably the largest number that ever attended this function. One noticeable feature was the large number of men. Hitherto the men have been conspicuous by their absence at affairs of this kind, but if the increase of men in the classical departments continues as it is now doing the men will soon outnumber the women.
Professor and Mrs. Barber, Professor Sanford and Miss Hunter were in the receiving line. Mr. Aaron, as president of the Latin Club, introduced the guests. After the formal reception refreshments were served. Then the time-honored Latin songs about "oscula rubentis puellae" and other like interesting themes were sung. The boys sang several songs alone to show that they were there "with the goods."
The crowd dispersed at 10, convinced that a "dead language" department can show its students a real live time.

The pennants at the Co-op have the style and finish which give them a tailor-made appearance.

Barbs Meet.
The Associated Barbs meet this morning at 11 in Memorial Hall for the annual election of officers and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. It is probable that some action will be taken with reference to the twenty-five cent fee charged at the election of student members of the Athletic Board. The changes made last year by the Athletic Board in the regulations governing the election are not regarded by the Barbs as being any better than the arrangement previously in force and they expect to make another attempt to secure the desired change.
