THE KANSAS TEAM.

As Seen By Manager Eager in Their Game With Colorado.

According to Manager Eager, who went to Kansas last Saturday specially to witness the Kansas-Colorado game, the Jayhawkers have the strongest team that has ever represented Kansas on the football field. While Colorado has a weak team, the Kansans played in hard luck and this fact only prevented the score from being twice what it was.

Kansas has a heavy, almost impregnable line, and plays fast ball according to the old tactics, so Nebraska will have to resort to trick plays to gain their ground. The Kansas offense is weak, and heavy as well, so the ball will undoubtedly change hands frequently.

In Saturday's game Kansas used her weight against the lighter Colorado team, and tore great holes in her opponent's line, making the required distance without difficulty. But her backs were too slow to play the open fast game that is allowable under the new rules. A light fast team should stand a good show of keeping the ball against the Kansans, and that is what we must hope to do. Manager Eager thinks that, even with her ponderous line, Kansas will not be able to make her ten yards against Nebraska, and will be forced to punt frequently.

With our line improving every day and the team work becoming more and more perfect, by the time we are ready for Kansas, we should present a defense as strong, and an offense far stronger than our rivals will be able to muster.

The Jayhawkers are coming to Lincoln by the hundreds and the game will be played and witnessed with an intensity that has been but rarely felt on Nebraska Field.

"COLLEGE PATRIOTISM."

Dean Ringer Gives University Men Strong Address.

Mr. J. Dean Ringer, Law '05, spoke last Sunday at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on "College Patriotism." Mr.
Ringer's prominence in the University and the interest which he has always taken in school affairs lent his talk especial interest. His talk in brief was as follows:

He first defined patriotic as loyalty to some cause or institution. This he illustrated by Edward Everett Hale's story, "The Man Without a Country." He said that in college life to be loyal we must have some principle deserving of support. We must have high ideals of what our University should be. Athletics should be made clean.
When "Bennie" said, "Good work" with regard to the Nebraskan's editorial on "Fair Play" he thought the same. A man should develop himself physically, spiritually and mentally.
Men should be fair, square, and above board in class work.

Finally the Y. M. C. A. should have the support of every college man because it helps make one a better patriot.

Only a Joke.

The article in Saturday's Nebraskan headed "Simms Adjudged Guilty," has unfortunately been misinterpreted by some persons. The whole affair, accusation, prosecution, and conviction, was purely a joke, and Mr. Simms was in nowise reflected upon by the moot-court's decision.
