Lost—From the pigeon-holes in Uni. Hall during drill last Friday, Ashley's "American Federal State" and Baker's "Argumentation." Please return to Nebraskan office.

The College Settlement Board will meet at the rooms of the city Y. M. C. A. at noon on November 6th, when an informal luncheon will be given by Professor H. R. Smith in honor of Dr. Bolton, the retiring member of the board.

Roscoe Anderson, of the class of '06, has been visiting University friends. After leaving Nebraska, he attended Leland Stanford University a half year, and was in the midst of the San Francisco earthquake. He is now in the real estate business.

Professor Bessey is preparing a paper on "The Growing Importance of plant Physiology in Agricultural Education" for the meeting of the Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science, which is to be held in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, about the middle of November.

A telegram has been received from Dr. E. A. Bessey, '96, from Miami, Florida, saying that he and his wife passed safely thru the big hurricane which swept across southern Florida on the 18th of this month. Press reports indicate great destruction to property in that region.

Nelson Sisters Leave New York Today.

Miss Lena Wilson, '06, together with her sister Anna, also a former University student, sails today from New York City for northern India, where she goes as a missionary. Her sister will also do missionary work in the East.

The 'Skeeter And Peter.
There was bright fellow named Peter, Who struck at an active young 'skeeter,
But the 'skeeter struck first And slackened his thirst,
And the 'skeeter was fleetier than Peter.
