COME OUT.

Have you ever felt the thrill of college loyalty that sweeps all before it? Have you ever been enthusiastic over your football team? Have you ever yelled the University yells until you couldn't speak above a whisper? If not, there's a chance tonight. Come out and see.

Have you ever seen a demonstration of genuine Nebraska feeling? Were you one of the crowd that welcomed Nebraska's team when it returned from Colorado two years ago? Did you catch the true spirit behind it all? Did you appreciate that the University is always behind its team in victory or defeat? If you did, you'll come out tonight.

The rally tonight at the depot is a test of your loyalty to football. Our the best of similar clubs in other universities.

Plays of real merit have been produced every year, sometimes as many as five or six within the two semesters. Talent in no slight degree has been exhibited and at present there are several former Dramatic Club members who are either studying for, or already on, the stage in the east.

It is evident that this club merits the support of the student body. Financial support has never been lacking as the money making power of the club amply attests, but there is a demand for new members. Talent is wanted and the call should be heeded.

Have you ever taken part in plays? Did you do dramatic work in high school? If so, here is your chance to go on. There is no more fascinating form of recreation than amateur theatricals, nor is there any that is of more practical benefit. You'll make no mistake to try out for the club and membership will be worth many times the effort to put forth to win it.

FINAL PRACTICE.

Team to Take Light Gymnastics Early This Afternoon.

Prospects for the Minnesota game were very encouraging last night. Practice lasted from 3 to 6 o'clock and consisted almost entirely of signal work. The team went thru a most thoro drill in their formation and evinced a complete mastery of their plays. The men were also coached specially on defense for the Minnesota formations, the latter being executed by the scrubs under the direction of Assistant Coach Stuart.

There will be practice at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, after which the team will take early supper at the Lindell. At 6 in the evening they will leave over the Burlington for Minneapolis and should arrive there about eight the next morning. The men are all in good condition and may be de-team has been defeated and is going to almost certain defeat on next Saturday. Nevertheless, there is no reason to feel discouraged. The team is on the up-grade and with the proper spirit behind it will render an excellent account of itself when it meets the Gophers day after tomorrow. You can help put the proper spirit behind. Come out tonight and try.

Put up your books for an hour. Loosen up on your usual conservatism. Forget that you know how to "knock" and take part in the rally with all your might. Show the team that you believe in them thoroly. Be loyal for once and come out.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB.

The University Dramatic Club is one of the most interesting organizations at Nebraska. Founded several years ago it has prosecuted the work that comes in its sphere with zeal and intelligence, until now it ranks with ended on to put up the game of their lives.

The following men will make the trip: Johnson, Matters, Harvey, Wilkie, Taylor, Rice, Denslow, Cooke, Weller, Mason (captain), Little, McDonald, Schmidt, Ewing, Grome, Voss, Chaloupka, Drain, Perrin, Craig, Benedict, Coaches Stuart and Foster, and Manager Eager.

Gopher Conclit.

A dispatch to the Chicago Record-Herald from Minneapolis says that Gophers regard the coming Nebraska contest as a mere practice game. Can we "fool 'em"?

Freshman Football Tryouts.

The class of '10 will hold their try-out for the Freshman team on Saturday afternoon, November 3, at 3 o'clock. The tryouts will be held on the athletic field and it is expected that a large number of the first year football candidates will put in an appearance.

with such success that they have become a recognized factor in the life of the organization. The first one this year will probably be given before the Thanksgiving recess and shortly after the tryouts. It will afford an opportunity for new members to become acquainted and will be somewhat in the nature of an initiation. The committee that has been appointed to work this first evening meeting up is as follows: Miss Hartley, chairman; committee, Miss Tully and Mr. Evans.

The regular dues of the club are twenty-five cents per year with an initiation fee of twenty-five cents for all new members. Any student who has even been a member of the club may regain active membership on the payment of the regular dues. The officers of the club, elected at a recent meeting, are as follows: Vice president, E. M. Sunderland; secretary, Miss Vera Fall; treasurer, Miss Flossy Erford; custodian of properties, Mr. Frazier. Club pins may be secured at Hallett's jewelry store.

Cadet Officers Elect.

The officers of the cadet battalion at a meeting after drill on Tuesday elected the following officers for their club: President, C. D. Slaughter (captain Co. A); secretary-treasurer, L. K. Needham (first lieutenant Co. B).

The club is formed for the purpose of adjusting matters pertaining to the cadet battalion but has its social side as well. It gives an annual officer's hop which will be held this year at some time before Christmas.

The officers in charge of this year's hop have been chosen and are as follows: Chairman, C. C. McWilliams; master of ceremonies, M. F. Wasson. The date for the hop will be announced shortly.
