Let There Be Light.

Did you ever go to the library,
And try to study at night,
And sit there and fuss and worry and
cuss,
Because of the lack of light?
If you try to read or try to write,
You know mighty well you'll ruin
your sight.
So you give it up and say its a fright,
That we can't have even a decent light.

Did you ever go back to the old
"Spoon-holder"
And try to find a book?
Where you used to stay and work and play.
Now the place with darkness shook.
For an electric-light in vain you look,
In every corner and every nook,
But you don't find either the light or your book,
Unless in your pocket a candle you took.

Moral: Lets have more lights and a little steadier current.

Sophomore Football.

The candidates for the Sophomore football team held a practise scrimmage last night at 5 o'clock. The boys showed up well, getting into their formations quickly and playing with great spirit. The untoughened players are displaying many bumps and sore spots today. From present indications, the Sophomores will have a strong team and should give the other classes a hard run for the sweaters.

Patriotism.

One of the Law classes received a distinct shock yesterday morning, almost sufficient to disturb the equanimity of the professor, when an excessively patriotic student whose mind was centered on today's game, sang out, "Nebraska," in reply to his name at roll call.

The Physical Education department announces that the class usually taking swimming at 11:30 a. m. on Wednesday will meet Monday at the same hour for that purpose. Also the class for swimming that usually meets on Friday at 3:00 o'clock will have its plunge on Wednesday.

It is recommended by the Rhetoric Department that all students in the advanced debating and argumentation courses take pains to be in attendance at such occasions as the speech by Hon. W. J. Bryan in the Auditorium tonight.
