

CAMPUS GLEANINGS.

Have you had your sitting for the Cornhusker? If not, don't fail to attend to it at once, for all sittings must be made before Thanksgiving. Townsend.

Have your photographs for the Cornhusker taken immediately, as all sittings must be made before Thanksgiving. Townsend.

Miss Harriet Hutton, a fellow in the Greek department, has just returned from New York City, where she has been attending the Alpha Phi convention.

The days are getting very short. Cornhuskers, please take notice and come early in the day for your pictures, and do not all come on Saturday. Townsend.

Mr. W. H. Heighton of Des Moines, Ia., visited at the School of Music yesterday. Mr. Heighton is publisher of the Western Musical Herald, the only musical paper west of Chicago.

Miss Pfeiffer, adjunct professor in the European History department, left for a ten days' visit in South Dakota Thursday. Miss Pfeiffer has some property there that she wishes to look after.

The seminar on Bad Government in the department of Political Science is attracting much interest. Recently Judge A. S. Tibbets gave an address before the class on "Tactics of the Railway Interests."

A new $250 stereopticon, with microscopic projection, has been ordered by the University for the State Farm. It will be constructed in accordance with the plans of O. J. Fee, superintendent of grounds and buildings.

The staff of the Cornhusker announced that they have placed two caps and two gowns in Townsend's photographic studio for the use of Senior girls, who will have their pictures taken at once.

Professor Condra is busy these days writing a bulletin on the sand and gravel resources of Nebraska. This bulletin of two hundred or more pages will be of immense value to those engaged in lime, brick or artificial stone industries.

WANTED—Thirty-five Cornhuskers to sit every day for the next two weeks in order to have all made before Thanksgiving. Townsend.

Dr. Clapp announces that the try-outs for the cross-country team will be held at 4:30 sharp on Tuesday next. He urges that every man of the twenty-five or thirty that have been working get out and do their best.

Several members of the faculty attended the meeting of the Schoolmasters' Club in the Lincoln Hotel Thursday evening. This club is made up of the most prominent school men in the state. The chief topic of discussion for the evening was the accrediting of the high schools of Nebraska.

The Forestry Club meets tonight in N. 110 at 8 o'clock. The subject of discussion will be "Temperature and Its Relation to Plants." Addresses by R. G. Steele, R. G. Pierce, and Claude Tillotson will be given. All students interested in Forestry are invited to be present.

A number of students of the Political Economy and Commerce department took the civil service examination for positions in the Bureau of Corporations and Labor. In the past Nebraska University has supplied a number of people for this work in Washington, D. C.

Mr. O. J. Graf, who has been pursuing graduate work in the University for two years has returned to the school. He expects to receive his M. A. degree at the mid-winter commencement. He has been in Minnesota for several months as educational secretary of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Carnival fun, each one come out to Armory, make things hum. Up to you to spend that dime, November 24th is the time. I'll do you good, so bring a guest, Y. W. C. A. will do the rest.

Far and wide go spread the news. Any one who has the blues is commanded to be there. Rah, rah, rah,—the County Fair.

The phonograph isn't to blame if it has a bad record.

HERE AND THERE.

Robert R. Hill, '06, is principal at Humboldt.

Miss Ethel Howie, '06, is teaching at North Bend.

Miss Elizabeth L. Brown, '02, is teaching at Bancroft.

Miss Ethel M. Pressley, '06, is teaching at Randolph, Iowa.

V. L. Strickland, '06, is principal of the Plattsmouth schools.

A. Russell Moore, '04, is assistant superintendent at Alliance.

Miss Helen Arnold, '06, is teaching at Lake Preston, Minnesota.

Willford J. King, '05, is instructor in the Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, schools.

Miss Sarah E. Paine, '06, is teaching in the Oakland high school.

Arthur G. Kennedy, M. A., '05, is instructor in the Norfolk High School.

Miss Gertrude Rowan, M. A., '06, is teaching in the York High School.

A $100,000 veterinary building is being erected at the University of Pennsylvania.

The Freshmen lost the annual class rush against the Sophomores at Carnell this fall.

Miss Emma Wilhelmson, '02, has charge of the Normal Department in the Beatrice High School.

Chas. H. Taylor, '04, returned to Springfield this fall, where he is superintendent of the city schools.

Miss Edna Spears, '05, has resigned her position as teacher in the Alma High School on account of illness.

The Purdue Exponent has one of the best college cartoonists of any paper on our exchange list. His work contains good, pure humor.

A crowd of Minnesota co-eds have chartered a car to take them to Chicago Saturday for the football game with the Midway school.

The Dramatic Club at the University of Minnesota presented three plays Thursday night. They were: "My Lord in Livery," "A Man of Letters," and "Her Picture."

The current number of the "World's Work" contains an interesting article on the career of Brigadier General Pershing, who was Commandant of the Nebraska cadets a few years ago.

Abe Pepperburg, '02, is an electrical engineer for the Brooklyn Heights Electric Railway company, with headquarters in New York City. Abe was lieutenant of Company C in his Senior year.

Minnesota secured a good football song for the Chicago-Minnesota game as the result of an eight dollar prize offered by the athletic management. It goes to the tune of "How'd You Like to Be the Umpire?"

The goal posts on Marshall Field, Chicago, have been padded at the lower ends for the Chicago-Minnesota game. The Daily Maroon does not know whether this has been done to protect the players from injury or the goal posts from damage.

During the thirteen years that Brown has played Harvard the Providence boys have been unable to win a football game. The contest Saturday, in which the score stood 9 to 4 was the best showing they have made against the Cambridge eleven.

Class Basket-ball.

All girls wishing to practise for class basket-ball should report at Miss Towne's office at 11 a. m.; Freshmen, Monday; Sophomores, Tuesday; Juniors, Wednesday; Seniors, Thursday.

Alumni Visit University.

Several alumni of Nebraska now connected with the United States Geological Survey have visited the University within the past few days. Among them were R. W. Calvert, formerly of the department of Geology; Dr. C. H. Gordon, also formerly of the Geological department, and superintendent of public schools in Lincoln; Henry Eakin, who leaves for Washington Sunday, and G. A. Fisher, '95, one of the chiefs of the survey, who is here today.

Dr. Gordon will spend the winter in Texas studying the underground water resources of that state. Mr. Calvert will help write up the Geological survey of Montana, in which he was engaged as one of Mr. Fisher's party during the summer.

Among New Arrivals In Our Notion Dep't

- Are the following.
- One lot of Netsuki Bags, in Browns, Greens, Blues, Dahlia shades; made up from Japanese leathers and fancy silks; very special values at... $1.50
- Signet Hat Pins, in Rose Gold finish, in an assortment of designs, which we place on sale at 50c, 75c and... $1.00
- Fancy Nickel Watch Fobs, with safety attachment; each 25c and... 75c
- New Ribbon Fobs, in Rose Gold Finish; special values at 50c, $1.00 and up to... $5.00
- Leather Belts, in Black, with wide front buckles; good values at... 75c
- More fancy Black Combs, in a variety of beautiful designs; prices 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and... $1.50
- Peter Pan Purses, in new fancy shapes, at... 25c

MILLER & PAINE

A Heart to Heart Talk With Boys

ELLIOTT BROS. SUITORIUM
1210 O St.

Do you want those swell Eastern University styles in Tailor-Made Suits and Overcoats? We have them from $20 to $40 And They're Just Right.

Remember the Date--November 24

THE ANNUAL COUNTY FAIR

Plan to Come. Event of the Year

LINDSEY'S PLACE

R. E. ERWIN, '99 A. E. PERKINS
RETAILERS AND JOBBER'S OF TOBACCO, CIGARS, AND NEWS

BREAD, PIES AND CAKES

We Serve Hot Drinks and Ice Cream All Winter

Gregory, the Coal Man