MADAME HOMER SINGS.

Mr. Mills of the School of Music Comments on Recital.

The song recital by Madame Louise Homer, Friday evening, at the Auditorium, was a signal success, both for the singer herself and for the Matinee Musical, under whose auspices she appeared.

Madame Homer has a true contralto voice of wide compass, with which she has acquired great facility.

She sang the entire program with artistic judgment and effectiveness, leading the audience thru the labyrinth of light and shade, tone coloring and blending, such as is possible only with those who have their voice mechanism under complete control.

From a vocalist's standpoint, her tone was surprisingly throaty during the earlier part of the program, this being most noticeable in soto voci passages, but she showed a marked gain in this respect as the evening advanced.

Mrs. Will Owen Jones played all the accompaniments (with the exception of those by Mr. Homer) upon practically six hours' notice. Mrs. Jones performed the task in a musicianly and sympathetic manner, for which we wish to extend to her the highest commendation. Why persons, who are dependent upon the accompanist as singers, do not exercise sufficient forethought to see that proper arrangements are made in adequate time is inexplicable.

An interesting feature of the program was a group of songs by Sidney Homer, with the composer at the piano. These songs are fresh, melodious and made a pleasing effect on their first hearing.

Revised Football Rules of 1906.
Rule I.

The "forwards" must wear handcuffs to prevent a chance of fighting.
The halfbacks must be muzzled to restrain them from all biting.
The quarter must be chloroformed before each play exciting.

Rule II.
Each player must be guarded by a trainer, two physicians.
Two umpires, a policeman and eleven politicians;
A chaplain, too, must soothe him during frequent intermissions.

Rule III.
Don't use rough language. Temper must be smooth as any satin.
The gridiron's not a proper place to wrangle or combat in.
If you must use profanity, please speak in Greek or Latin.

Rule IV.
To bar out all "professionals," we favor the applicant.
Each student is disqualified, despite his fierce defiance, who has not gained his Ph.D. in calculus or science.

Rule V.
If some one takes the ball from you, don't try by force to drop him.
Stand still and thunder "Halt!" three times, and if this doesn't stop him,
Call up a constable at once and have the copper top him.

Rule VI.
A fullback who has caught the ball before he tries to kick it, Must take it to the referee and get a credit ticket;

Each coupon's good for seven yards.
(You must not bend or nick it.)

Rule VII.
In running ends each player, "a precautionary provision."
Must wave a colored lantern as a guard against collision.

Disputes must be referred to the supreme court for decision.
