RECEPTION AT FARM.

Y. M. C. A. at University Farm to Give Reception Tonight.
The Young Men's Christian Association at the University Farm holds a reception to Farm Students this evening in the new Agricultural Hall. A short program will be given, followed by various "stunts" and light refreshments. A number of men from the University Y. M. C. A. are planning to go out to the Farm on the car which leaves Tenth and O streets at 7:45 p. m.
The Farm Y. M. C. A. was organized last year and had a flourishing existence up to the close of the last term. It is hoped to renew the enthusiasm this year and increase both the size and influence of the organization.

DR. FINDLEY WILL SPEAK.

New Member of Medical Faculty to Address Medical Society.
Dr. Palmer Findley of the clinical faculty, who is to speak before the Medical Society on Saturday evening, is a new man to the University, having accepted a call from Chicago only last May. He is a student of marked ability and a good speaker. A large audience is expected to welcome him to the University on his first visit. The general University public is invited and will be glad to know that the lecture, which is entitled "The Mythology of Obstetrics," was delivered last spring at one of the general convocations of the University of Chicago, was very favorably commented on by the student body. It should be understood that the lecture is of general interest and is classical—not technical. Dr. Findley has been for years a close student of classical mythology as a result of his college training.

Freshman-Sophomore Receipts.

The gate receipts of the Freshman Sophomore game amounted to $35.10. There were 234 paid admissions at the gate and it is probable the total receipts will be much larger when all who held tickets for sale have checked in.

Freshman Hop.

The Freshman Hop committee has decided to hold the annual Freshman function January 11th.

Professor Barber has consented to deliver an illustrated lecture next Monday evening before the students of Vergil in the University, on some Roman antiquities that are of interest to readers of the Aeneid.

The difficulty caused by the refusal of Rothgeb, ex-Illinois, to referee tomorrow's game with Kansas has finally been adjusted. Kennedy, ex-Chicago, is to referee and Hammill, also ex-Chicago, will umpire.
