

The Daily Nebraskan

Vol. VI. No. 41.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1906.

Price 5 Cents.

LINE-UP OF TODAY'S GAME ON INSERT OF THIS PAPER

A GREAT RALLY

BIGGEST AND BEST FOOTBALL MASS MEETING OF YEAR.

Speeches Unusually Stirring—New Song Makes Good—Innovation in Yelling—Enthusiasm Rampant.

Honk-Honk-Honk-Honk!
No, you are wrong. It was neither a flock of geese nor a bevy of automobiles. Quite on the contrary, it was a new outlet for University football enthusiasm and it first saw the light of day at the mass meeting held in Memorial Hall yesterday to prepare for the Kansas game. It was an addition to the usual quota of yells and Kansas bids fair to think she is surrounded by a huge flock of mallards or Canadian geese when the referee's whistle blows this afternoon.

The mass meeting was the largest and by far the most enthusiastic that has been held at the University this year. Apparently the thought of meeting Nebraska's most deadly rival in football has stirred the student body to its depths. Besides this, plans were more nearly perfected for a rally that should go with a snap than they ever have been before.

The crowd that filled Memorial Hall to its limits found the celebration on when they entered. The band was in place and at work. A round of yells for the individual members of the team, each one ending with a "honk" three times repeated, was followed by more music from the band and then the speechmaking commenced.

Dr. Maxey was called and responded in characteristic vein. "My remarks on a former occasion of this nature were misconstrued," said the genial professor, "and I propose today to consider a serious subject." Naming his subject as "The Origin of Football," the professor continued: "Authorities differ as to the first mention of football in ancient literature. Those who ascribe a sacred origin, point to the passage in the Bible which refers to 'a little leaven' and in my opinion this is good proof not only that football was played but that the conference rules were in vogue, else there would be no little 'levens.' Supporters of the theory of pagan origin point to passages in Herodotus and Caesar's Commentaries which may be freely translated, so they assert, as follows: 'A mass on tackle is good for three yards' and 'Caesar played half.'

"But whatever its origin may have been," continued Dr. Maxey, "it is certain that football has been played by all great nations—except Kansas." In conclusion the professor made a strong objection to the cry of brutality that is so often heard. "For an absolutely safe game," said he, "let me recommend to you—tiddely winks."

The new song was tried out at this juncture after the series of yells had been run thru. It proved a tremendous hit and will be sung several times by the bleachers today.

Coach Foster was next brought forward and aroused the enthusiasm of his hearers to the boiling point by his

A Preliminary Glimpse of the County Fair to be Held Saturday Evening, Nov. 24, in the Armory.

Nebraska's Yells and Songs

YELLS

1. U-U-U-ni
Ver-Ver-Versity
N-e-bras-ki
Oh-h-h-my!
2. Hoo-Rah-Rah
Hoo-Rah-Rah
Hoo-Rah-Hoo-Rah
Ne-bras-ka (Repeat).
3. Hold-em-Ne-bras-ka
Tear em up!
Tear em up!
Tear em up!
Ne-bras-ka!
Stone-wall-Ne-bras-ka
Tear-em-up!
Tear-em-up!
Tear-em-up!
Ne-bras-ka.
4. A growl—a whistle—Hoo-ray!
Nebraska.
5. a. Say!
b. Say what?
a. That's what!
b. What's what?
a. That's what they all say!
b. What's what they all say?
(All) Touchdown Nebraska!
Touchdown Nebraska!!
Touchdown Nebraska!!
6. Hoo-Rah-Rah } Slow
Ne-bras-ka }
Hoo-Rah-Rah } Faster
Ne-bras-ka }
Hoo-Rah-Rah } Fast
Ne-bras-ka }
Yell!

SONGS

- a. Cheer for Nebraska, Nebraska must win,
Fight to the finish, never give in,
You do your best boys, we'll do the rest boys,
Fight for Victory.
- b. [Tune—Waltz Me Around Again, Willie.]
Back to the hay again, Jayhawk.
Skidoo—skidoo—skidoo.
Your cows are a-bawling, your co-eds are calling
"Oh, don't let Bill Johnson get thru!"
Schmidt, Cooke, and Chaloupka are playing great ball,
And Matters and Mason you can't stop at all;
So back to the hay again, Jayhawk.
Skidoo—skidoo—skidoo.

tribute to Cornhusker spirit. He insisted that Kansas will be no easy mark today and that there must be a continuous demonstration of this spirit if the Cornhuskers are to win.

Captain Mason then took the stand and seconded Coach Foster's statement concerning the difficulty of the game today. He was followed by Manager Eager, who first boosted the Chicago excursion and then related what he had seen of the Jayhawkers in their game with Colorado. In his opinion Kansas will give us a hard fight and stand a good show to win.

The celebration closed amid uproarious yelling and more music by the band.

Ye olden candlesticks and ye new ones, too, at Harris', the jeweler, 1137 O st. He's reliable.

Dr. Findley to Speak.

Dr. Palmer Findley, formerly of Rush Medical College, Chicago, and now professor of Gynecology and Obstetrics in the Omaha division of the University, will lecture to the Medical Society this evening at 8 o'clock in M. 301 on "The Mythology of Obstetrics." The general public is invited to attend.

During class games in past years spectators were allowed to roam all over the gridiron, but in the Freshman-Sophomore contest last Thursday they were confined to the grandstand and bleachers. The management of inter-class athletics hopes and wishes to keep them off the field during the remaining contests.

Hugh E. Wallace, '08, is visiting at the Alpha Theta Chi fraternity house.

KANSANS ARRIVE

JAYHAWKER TEAM REMAINS IN ITS CAR OVERNIGHT.

Are in Good Shape for Battle—Excursion Due at One O'Clock—Field Heavy—Big Crowd Expected.

The Kansas team arrived in Lincoln last night, but remained in their car, which is a combination sleeper and diner. They are not in a boastful mood, realizing that they have a hard game before them, but every man is up here to give the best that is in him and fight to the last ditch in the hope of victory.

The stormy weather of last night was most unfortunate for Nebraska, and the rooters are not as confident of victory as they were. On a muddy field the Jayhawkers' weight will tell to much advantage and Nebraska's swift plays will show up but poorly.

Reports from Kansas indicate that the poor showing made in the St. Louis and Washburn games has not dampened their ardor in the least. Those games were of minor importance and their team was not on its best mettle. The Nebraska game is the game for Kansas this year, and if a good man could be saved for that game he was not endangered by being used in a minor game.

The Cornhuskers are all keyed up to the highest pitch in anticipation of the game today. They have been practicing strenuously all week and with but few exceptions are in the best of condition. It is still doubtful if Schmidt and Weller will be in the game on account of the ankle of one the throat of the other, but no one can tell until the referee's whistle blows.

With the advent of the rooters' special, which is due at one o'clock, Lincoln will be a scene of much excitement, equalled only by that caused by the Colorado rooters last year. The rooters are expected to number several hundred and Kansas will no doubt own the town until 11 p. m., when the excursion train is scheduled to leave.

Many alumni and friends of Nebraska are coming in from Omaha and the towns in the state for the game and there will be fraternity, sorority, and private "doings" galore for them and the visiting Kansans.

FOOTBALL GAMES TODAY.

The big games today are:

West.

Nebraska vs. Kansas, at Lincoln.
Minnesota vs. Carlisle, at Minneapolis.
Chicago vs. Illinois, at Chicago.
Wisconsin vs. Purdue, at Madison.

East.

Michigan vs. Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia.
Princeton vs. Yale, at Princeton.
Harvard vs. Dartmouth, at Cambridge.
Army vs. Bucknell, at West Point.
Amherst vs. Williams, at Amherst.
Cornell vs. Swarthmore, at Ithaca.

Cornhuskers, get busy. Townsend.