OUR GAME WITH KANSAS.

In the game to be played today comes the first true test of the resumed athletic relations between Kansas and Nebraska. True it is, that we have contested with the Jayhawkers in basketball, baseball, and track athletics since the cessation of hostilities, but never have these sports threatened in any way the harmony between the sister institutions. Football was the rock upon which the bark of true sisterly affection went to pieces and today is the test of how strongly the fragments have been rebound.

We believe that today's game will see the old friendly relations restored in their entirety. We believe that Kansas is coming to Nebraska's field ural effervescence that vents itself in noise is unquestionably permissible provided it is not used to prevent a visiting team from understanding its signals. There are several points, however, where a caution is needed. To cheer unfair play is to countenance it, and this we can not afford to do. Let us assume that the referee and umpires are giving us a "square deal" whenever penalties come, as come they must, even in the best of games. Let us not revile the officials for decisions we are in no position to question, and above all, let us be courteous if injuries occur to Kansas players.

In short let us be true hosts, even if we are keen rivals. Let us prove to Kansas today that we really desire a series of football games with them that shall be as long and as continuous as was the one between 1892 and 1903 and furthermore, let us show the Jayhawkers, whether team or rooters, that there is no longer any tinge of dislike in our relations with them.

EVENTS OF FORMER YEARS.

Things that happened on this date in former years as recorded in the Daily Nebraskan:

Four Years Ago Today.

The Athletic Board met and unanimously re-elected Coach Booth.

Three Years Ago Today.

The students were busy fighting the "Laundry Trust" and fractured its backbone.

The basketball team practised in the cold.

Two Years Ago Today.

Speaking editorially the Nebraskan protested against continuing athletic relations with the Haskell Indians. No games have been played with the redskins since.

One Year Ago Today.

Several hundred students departed for Minneapolis to witness Nebraska's crushing defeat.

MY $10.00 CRAVENETTES

They are $15 Coats—good enough to wear to a football game—good enough to wear to a party—good enough to wear anywhere. My new shipment is just in. These are not "clothing store" coats—clothing stores don't dare sell such such coats at $10—it would kill their $15 and $18 business.

to demonstrate that, while they are our rivals in every sportsmanlike interpretation of the word, they are not our enemies. Their team will doubtless do its utmost to defeat our Varsity and the Kansas rooters, we hope, will do their utmost to inspire their team to victory. This is certainly a "consummation devoutly to be wished."

For our part, we know that the sentiment toward Kansas is in no sense hostile. Nebraska's team will play its game today with every energy bent, not toward the humiliation of the Jayhawkers nor for the chance to gloat in case we are victorious, but rather for the football prestige of Nebraska. The Cornhuskers enter the contest determined to play a fair, clean game and the bleachers will be with them to the last ditch.

The bleachers today will have the opportunity to show that they are "white." Rooting is legitimate; music is certainly desirable; and all the nat-

DR. WARD RECEIVES OFFER.

May Leave Nebraska After Fourteen Years of Service.

Dr. Henry B. Ward, Dean of the College of Medicine, is seriously considering two offers that have recently come to him from schools in the east and it is not impossible that he may leave Nebraska at an early date. It is understood that one offer is for the presidency of an eastern university and that the other is for the head of a college of medicine.

Both offers carry with them much larger salaries than are paid at Nebraska, but this fact is not swaying Dr. Ward so much as the prospect of enlarged opportunities. The doctor has been on the faculty of the University of Nebraska for fourteen years and has made hosts of friends among instructors and faculty. It is with the deepest regret that his friends have learned that he is even considering a change and it is their sincere hope

The Uni. Dining Hall.

The University Dining Hall, University Woman's Building, Twelfth and Q streets, is one of the most popular dining halls in the city for professors and students. The most recent plan of managing dining rooms is here employed. Each patron takes a tray and is served at hot tables by waitresses. He then carries the food and places it upon the table himself. This system of serving not only enables large numbers to be served more readily than by any other, but also gives the patron his food while it is still hot and wholesome. The following list of prices is charged: Soups, 5c; roast meat, 5c; pastries, 5c; vegetables, 3c; bread and butter, 2c; waffles, 2 for 5c; salads, 5c; dry toast, 3c; milk toast, 5c; sandwiches, 5c.

Many other articles of food are served at prices as reasonable as those here mentioned. All breakfasts are served under this system. Beginning Monday, November 19th, dinners and suppers will also be served by waiters to patrons desiring it at the following prices: Twenty-one meals for $4, or five meals for $1.00 Single meal 25 cents. See daily menu in front of University Book Store. A special invitation is given to both men and women.
