EXCHANGE HITS.

A Freshman stood on the burning deck
And, so far as we can learn,
He stood in perfect safety, for
He was too green to burn.
—Exchange.

"I fear," said the postage stamp on the student's letter to his father,
"that I am not sticking to facts."
—Exchange.

John—"Paw, did Moses have dyspepsia like what you got?"
Father—"How on earth do I know?
What makes you ask such a question?"
Johnny—"Why, our Sunday school teacher says the Lord gave Moses ten tablets."
—Crimson.

"What you say goes," he sadly said,
With eyes and heart aflame,
She glanced at the clock and turned
her head,
And softly murmured his name.
—Exchange.

Mr. Royal S. Kellog of the United States Forest Service will visit the University December 3 and 4 to deliver lectures for the Forestry department on "Forest Utilization."

THE WAY AT NORTHWESTERN.

And We Really Think We Are Restricted at Nebraska.

The following rules have been forced upon the women students at Northwestern University:

"Segregated chapel services once a week."

"No roses or chocolates from the men."

"No after theater cab rides from the railroad station to their homes."

"No callers allowed to stay after 9:30 o'clock and all lights out at 10 o'clock."

"No spooning on college steps or courting on the college campus."

"No moonlight walks without a chaperone."

"No sorority houses."

"No boat rides on the lake unless in the company of a member of the United States life saving crew."—The Daily Maroon.

And still we think our liberties are in serious danger at Nebraska. What would college be without all that is tabooed at our sister institution? The refrain would surely float out upon the campus atmosphere, "Back to the home again, co-ed—Skidoo, Skidoo, Skidoo."

A Social Stunter.

A. E. Meade, a member of Phi Kappa Psi who was in the University last year, is with a railroad surveying party in Wyoming. A rumor has reached the Nebraskan that recently Mr. Meade rode twenty miles from camp to attend a "social function" at the thriving metropolis of Lost Cabin. It is evident that Mr. Meade still retains his aspiration to be one of the "four hundred."

To Visit Nebraska.

Professor Sheldon, B. Sc. '99, A. M.
'01, Ph. D. '03, now professor of Botany in the University of West Virginia, has notified Professor Bessey that he intends to make a short visit to Lincoln within the next few days. Dr.
Sheldon has recently arranged to have Carl Hartley, '07, appointed his assistant. Nebraska scientific graduates appear to be a clannish bunch.

To Exhibit Today.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be an exhibition at the University Farm of the steers which are to be sent to Chicago as Nebraska's entries in the National Stock Show to be held in that city from December 1 to 8.
The public is invited to attend.

Mr. A. B. Edwards, Ph.D., from Yale, is visiting the University. Dr.
Edwards is connected with the Carnegie Institution of Washington, D. C., and his business is the promotion of research work along economic lines.
He is making the rounds of western universities and since September 15
has been to Minnesota, Iowa, Chicago, and Northwestern.

W. Y. Thornburg, who graduated in the class of 1902, is now superintendent of public schools in Aberdeen, Mississippi, one of the foremost towns of that state. Recently Mr. Thornburg gave an address before the Southern Teachers' Association, which is one of the two great teachers' associations in America.

Miss Pfeiffer has returned from her visit to her home in South Dakota.
While gone she had the experience of being lost at night on the Dakota plains, and on another occasion drove sixty miles thru one of the worst of Dakota blizzards.
