AN AUTO EPISODE.
crowd of Freshmen, who proceeded to search the car for the rescued master-of-ceremonies, and were only willing to let it go on when they were convinced that Gittings was not there.

In the meantime Gittings had reached Lincoln in safety and was at once concealed by his classmates. "He will be produced from cold storage," so a Sophomore asserted yesterday afternoon, "when it is time for him to make his official debut."

It is understood that Chairman Benedict and President Rinaker were also the objects of Freshman intentions yesterday afternoon, but they were put in safe keeping early in the day and appeared at the hop last night apparently in first-class condition.

There was a plan on foot among the Sophomores yesterday afternoon also for the capture of President Heskett of the Freshmen. It was planned to kidnap him, place him in irons and produce him in his humble garb at the function last night. At the time of going to press, the Nebraskan is unable to determine whether or not the Sophomores had succeeded in their attempt.

The dance last night was one of the most enjoyable of the year thus far and demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of all who attended that a dance delightful in its every feature may be given at a very low price per ticket and with every detail of management open and aboveboard.

Mr. Hollingsworth Accepts.

Mr. H. L. Hollingsworth, '06, who is now principal of the Fremont High School, was a campus visitor yesterday in company with a number of his students. Mr. Hollingsworth has only recently received an offer from Columbia University of the position of assistant in the department of Psychology, which he has decided to accept. Mr. Hollingsworth will take up his new duties on March 1.

Professor Caldwell Goes to Omaha.

Professor Caldwell left yesterday for a visit to Omaha, where he gave a lecture to history teachers of the High School on the aims and methods of American History teaching in high schools. Professor Caldwell also expected to attend to business for the State Historical Society, of which he is secretary.

Some very artistic little circulars are being given out by the Artists' Bureau of the School of Music advising of the work of certain members of the School of Music faculty who are concert performers. Those interested in securing musical services of a high order would do well to get one of these circulars.

The Wisconsin football team set a precedent in Western football last week by electing a man to the captaincy of the 1907 eleven who has played only one year on the 'Varsity team. His name is Charles Miller, and he played a star game at fullback for the Badgers this fall.
