TO HAVE PIN.

Latin Club to Add Emblem to List of University Insignia.
The Latin Club has decided that it must fall into line with other clubs of similar nature thruout the University and have an emblem of its organization. This decision was the conclusion of an unusually interesting meeting held by the Club last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Jessie Thompson. It is not known as yet just what the nature of the new pin will be but it has been suggested that it should take the form of a bas-relief of Caesar building his famous bridge. Such a pin would form an elegant display, or so its backers assert, and would not be in great danger from theft or loss.
Other features of the meeting of the Club were a program of unusual merit and the cutting—and possibly the eating—of a cake cooked by one of the members of the Club after a recipe by Cato, the Censor. The cake was voted such a success that it was at once decided to hold a feast at some time in the future at which all of the viands produced shall be cooked from recipes of some such notable Roman Epicureans as Lucullus. It is rumored that the country in the near vicinity of Lincoln is to be scoured for nightengales' tongues, but we have our doubts as to whether the members of the Girls' Glee Club will willingly part with theirs.

MORE FELLOWSHIPS.

University of Chicago Announces Annual Awards.
Word has come to the office of the Chancellor concerning the time limits on the applications for the fellowships annually awarded by the University of Chicago.
These fellowships are awarded on the basis of the work already done by a candidate or of the promise which he gives for work of unusual merit. The various fellowships yield from $120 to $520 annually and applications must be in by March 1, 1907. Application blanks may be had at the Chancellor's office or upon written request to the Graduate School of Literature, Science and the Arts. Further information will be gladly given upon request.

Nebraska a Leader.

"The Concordiensis," published at the Union College, Schenectady, New York, gives the following list of western intercollegiate leaders in athletics:
Baseball Michigan
Track Michigan
Football Nebraska
Cross-country Michigan
Golf Minnesota
Basket-ball Chicago
Tennis Cornell College

MAY BREAK UP.

to carry this last, it was lost.
The action of the conference causes Michigan to lose Graham and Hammond in football, while Chicago loses Eckersall in track athletics and baseball. The other schools also lose men.

P. L. Brockway, C. E., '04, who has been inspecting concrete for the Rock Island, is visiting his engineer friends in the University. He is at present considering two or three offers of excellent positions which have recently become available.

Green's barber shops excel all others in the west. Entirely modern and the best work assured.
