According to press dispatçes from ew Haven, Harvard has given notice that it will not renew the two-year athletic agreement with Yale which expires on February 1. However, the Cambridge men havé consented to meet Yaie in all branches of sport un til the close, of the present schoo year in June. The continuance of ath letics after that date will depend upon whether certain branches are allowed at Harvard or not.

At the meeting of the Chemistry Club the following new members were admitted: Clyde Alden, F. W. Bel lamy, Frank Stockton. A very interesting program on "Methods for De, termining Sulphates" was rendered. Both J. B. Whelan and E. L. Ross contributed. The next meeting of this club will be held with Dr. Benton Dales at his residence, February 2.
