Medic Notes.

Dr. A. E. Meikel, '05, is in Berwick, Iowa.

Dr. J. C. Decker, '04, of Belleville, Kansas, was recently married in Denver.

Dr. H. S. Garland of the class of 1905 visited the University during the past month. Dr. Garland is now located at Reno, Nevada.

Dr. Harry H. Everett, instructor in surgical pathology, has just returned to Lincoln after an absence of two months spent in Johns Hopkins University in study and investigation.

Nebraska College of Medicine has been invited to join the International Association of Medical Museums and to send a representative to its meeting to be held next May in Washington.

Dr. Nicholas Senn of Chicago has accepted the invitation to deliver the commencement address at the College of Medicine this year. He will speak on the subject, "The Choice of a Professor."

Dr. N. P. Caldwell, Inspector for the American Medical Association, visited the University College of Medicine a few days ago and expressed himself as very highly pleased with the present conditions in the college, and the progress which has been made in the past two years.

The last meeting of the Medical Society was taken up with the election of officers, the positions being filled as follows: J. H. Sayer, president; C. Newman, vice-president; A. T. Osborn, secretary; August Swenson, treasurer; Ralph Christie, sergeant-at-arms. In the near future the society will be addressed by Doctors Bicknell, Jonas, Jewett, Christie, and Poynter. The program committee have planned to give a reception and dance in a few weeks.

The last number of the Medical College Bulletin, a pamphlet published quarterly by the University, has just been issued. It contains interesting papers on progressive subjects, also many items concerning alumni. The Bulletin is widely distributed throughout the country, its object being to keep the alumni in touch with the school. Any news of alumni or other items of interest for this publication will be greatly appreciated. Report any communications to Dr. A. E. Guenther, Station A, Lincoln.
