THE USEFULNESS OF PHYSICAL TRAINING.

View of a Chinese Girl on This Subject.

Miss Grace Coppock, '05, who went to China last October, sends the following as a specimen of the work of a Chinese girl in English on physical training:

"Long time ago we were hope must have physical training in our school. But now already have, so were very happy. Because it has great useful and important.

"One night we have a guests to come to our school, who is Miss Carbirt. And I thought suppose this teacher will help us a little. But I have never thought she will never taught us physical training. Hence one week Miss Carbirt has come on Friday. Then, Miss Waters asked us, 'Did you like to exercise your body?' and I said, 'Yes, Miss Waters, I like it very much because we were hope the physical training for long time.'"

And yet that is not so very much ought."

C. J. McNamara, C. E., '06, was a campus visitor last week having returned for the annual Kappa Sigma banquet. Mr. McNamara has received a promotion in his work, and is now in Denver holding the position of office engineer with the Union Pacific.

B. J. Arnold, '97, has recently been appointed superintendent of the reconstruction of the traction lines of Chicago. Something of the importance of the position can be realized when it is known that he draws a salary of $30,000 a year.
