Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

It is learned that there are some fifteen delinquents likely soon to be dismissed from the University. There are two or three for whom some excuse can be seen, but as for the rest,—let them go.

Sad, cruel fate! Why will the cold and heartless world thrust its rugged flints and hide its treacherous thorns in youth's harmless, dreamy way? Ah, life is a tragedy after all.

But let us take courage. Others,—not, perchance, with all their graces and endowments,—but others, nevertheless, will come to take their places.

books or overcoats, ready to do something men have always declared wrong, it is enough to make a pessimist out of an Emerson.

Yesterday morning a student lost an overcoat and recovered it later at a pawn shop. It was the second overcoat he had lost. Let us have a system of lockers installed.

The Western Philosophical Association and the North Central section of the American Psychological Association are to hold a joint meeting at the University of Chicago, March 28 and 30. Professor French has been invited to contribute a paper on the "Philosophical Interpretation of the Religious Consciousness."

At the same meeting Professor Bolton will read a paper on the "Efficacy of Consciousness" and another on the "Relation Between Pressure and Muscle Sense."

Dr. C. E. Bessey sent some cuttings of our Nebraska cotton-wood yesterday to Professor C. S. Sargent of the Arnold Arboretum for growth and subsequent study. Professor Sargent is the greatest authority on American trees and he wishes to study more closely this western species of cottonwood. The cuttings were sent from the campus.

The Badgers defeated the Gophers at Madison Saturday night by a score of 31 to 20. This ties Wisconsin and Minnesota for second place in the Intercollegiate Basketball League, leaving Chicago in first place for the present; the final standing of the teams will be decided this week by the Chicago-Minnesota game to be played at Minneapolis.

Professor Swezey has received notice of the discovery a few days ago, at Nice, in France, of a new comet, "visible in a small telescope," according to its discoverer, Jacobini, but unfortunately it is in the part of the sky hidden from our telescope by the

Let these go, let them plod homeward where they may spade their mother's flower gardens a little longer.

Who knows? With a dozen more years spent in such preparation, perhaps they shall have acquired the vigor and power to come back, undergo all the tremendous effort, all the fearful, frightful, wracking, harrowing torture-struggle, and with a great and final triumph make twelve hours.

Long, long ago Abraham had the education high enough and broad enough to allow Lot to choose him all the fertile plain of Jordan and to take what more sterile land there was left without ever a murmur. That was some three or four thousand years since, and the world has all this time been growing up, getting better educated,—presumably. Now, when it is learned that in an institution for training men, and founded on principles evolved out of the centuries, there are those ready to pick up anything they can lay their hands on, books, pocket-

The finance committee of the State Legislature has asked Dr. Bessey to advise them today as to the purchase for the state of a set of wood specimens, formerly the property of R. W. Furnas. This is probably the largest single collection ever made by anyone in Nebraska.

Professor Caldwell has been asked to act as a judge at the debate between the societies of Omaha and So. Omaha high schools. The debate is to be held at South Omaha.

Owing to the unusually large number of those drilling here and at the Farm, the quartermaster has been obliged to borrow a number of belts from the adjutant general of the state.
