PRIZE LAW STUDENTS.
 Announcement of Names of Best
 Freshmen Laws.

The Freshmen Law men holding the average of 85 per cent and over for the first semester are as follows:

Name	Average
1 David Fishman	91
2 Roy Carlberg	90
3 Jas. W. Cowles	89
4 J. M. Pattan	88
5 A. J. Dunlap	87
6 C. P. Peterson	86½
7 R. W. Devoe	86
8 D. D. Stull	86
9 Herbert Baird	85
10 A. B. Bouton	85
11 W. H. Reynolds	85

Honorable mention, B. W. Allen.
 The prizes that will go to the first three men have been selected and ordered by Dean Pound. A grade of 90 is seldom attained by law students. These grades are somewhat lower than those made last year, but this is owing to some irregularity in giving certain examinations.

Professor Swezey has prepared some lantern slides illustrating the method used in testing the large lens made by Dr. Minnich for the University; also to illustrate some features in the proposed mounting of the telescope. These are for a paper before the society of Sigma Xi tomorrow evening.

A piano tuning department has been started in the School of Music, with Mr. A. J. Morley at its head. This is a thoroly practical branch, and from the number who are already taking the work promises soon to be one of the strongest departments.

Mr. W. R. Mattoon, assistant forester in the United States forest service was a caller at the University Monday and addressed the boys in the Forestry department at 5 o'clock.

Washington State College gets an appropriation of $555,754 for the next two years. $322,000 goes for new buildings.
