P. B. K. ELECTION

NAMES OF INITIATES FROM CLASS OF 1907 ANNOUNCED.

Twenty-nine Out of One Hundred and Ninety-six Receive Honor—Men and Women in Proportion.

This morning at chapel time Dr. Ellery Davis announced the names of those in the Senior class elected to Phi Beta Kappa. The list in its alphabetical order follows:

Luella Agee, Albert Aaron, Thorne Browne, Hugh Craig, Vera Darling, Grace Denny, Dale Drain, Georgia Field, Anna Foster, Dell Gibson, Edwin Guthrie, Margaret Hannah, Wm. Hannan, Scena Hansen, Fred Harden, Leslie Higgins, Mira Kerns, Anna Krumbach, Lucille Long, Emily Moore, Edith Mattoon, Mary Morgan, Daisy Needham, Mabel Pepon, Raymond Pool, Vesta Shively, Roy Sunderland, Edith Webster, Albert Wolf.

It is interesting to notice that of this list of twenty-nine, twelve are men and seventeen, women, and since there are eighty-eight of the former and one hundred eight of the latter in the class, the numbers of men and women on the list are very nearly in proportion. This is the first time it has occurred thus in some seven or eight years. The best grade made was 121 hours of E and 5 hours of G; the lowest grade in the list was 40 hours of E, 43 hours of G and 11 hours of M.

In making up the list of those to be elected, first, only those non-technical students with at least a few hours of E were considered. About half the class were eligible on this consideration. Other tests for eligibility became operative. Each student to be eligible had to have 75 hours credit in the University of Nebraska and to have covered six of the eight lines of study outlined by the chapter. In the present case this latter test was not lived up to strictly because not thoroughly understood by all, and three or four of the candidates lacked an hour or two in their sixth line. Even then, however, about a dozen names failed to pass muster because the students lacked too many hours in the sixth line of study.

The proportion of the class to be elected and the tempering of the eligibility rule are matters left to the Faculty Council. The proportion of the class of 1907 elected is about one-seventh.

It should be understood thoroly that the election is a very formal matter. It might be called almost perfunctory. The grades actually made by the student and filed with the Registrar by the professors are what count and all that count,—after the candidate passes the other eligibility rules concerning breadth of course, and so on.

Junior Hats.

The Junior hats arrived a few days ago and are now a common sight on the campus. They are a pearl-gray crusher or telescope (at the option of the wearer) with a red felt band. It is the opinion of many that this is the neatest class "lid" that has made its appearance here since the '05 Senior hats.

SEATTLE U. OF N. CLUB.

A. H. Lundin, '06, Writes of Big Initial Banquet.

On the evening of the fourth of March at 6:30 the former students of the University of Nebraska gathered for dinner at the Seattle Commercial Club.

After the breaking of bread, Henry E. Wilcox, '00, arose and the old "U-U-U-N-I!" echoed and resounded thru the halls. E. J. Carver, '98, an old Nebraska fullback brought back live scenes, speaking on the subject "Pig-Skin Victories." He pointed out the fact that it was the scrappy, nervy fight, in victory or defeat, which had given Nebraska the prominent place she occupies in the football world.

John P. Hartman, '76 related "Untold Tales of Long Ago" and in return was elected president of the Seattle University of Nebraska Club. Professor Henry L. Boolby, '05, now of the faculty of the University of Washington, was made vice-president and Aured H. Lundin, '06, was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer. The object of the organization, as declared by its constitution, is to keep alive the old "Cornhusker spirit," to strengthen the ties which bind us to our Alma Mater and to each other, and to extend the hand of fellowship to all arrivals from the University. The old enthusiasm for the University lives and moves.

At the banquet, Chancellors and faculty were praised and extolled. Honorable judges and other men of prominence were referred to as "Ed," "Bill" and "Tom," and many mysteries and secrets of the past were explored. It was a great meeting. The thirty-three members of the club contemplate giving a banquet some time in the future to which all University of Nebraska men of the state will be invited.

The State of Washington has one of Nebraska's first graduates within her borders in the person of Judge Snell, who now resides at Tacoma and who graduated with J. S. Dales in 1893. There are many others scattered about the state.

MEN WANTED.

Final Tryout for Dramatic Club on Evening of April 8th.

There will be a tryout for membership in the University Dramatic Club on Monday evening, April 8 in Union Hall at 7:30 p. m. This tryout is for men only and it is hoped that a large number of applicants will hand in their names to Professor Losey, of the department of Rhetoric, before that time.

Tryouts will consist of the rendition of a selection of at least two hundred words which contains something of dramatic merit. Candidates may choose their own selections.

With the facilities that the new Temple will afford for the work of the Dramatic Club next year, there is every prospect that the Club will take on a new lease of life, and all undergraduate men who are at all interested are urged to appear for the last tryout of the present year.

An editor-in-chief for the Cornhusker is to be elected at a Junior class meeting shortly after the Easter vacation. The two prospective candidates are Arthur Jorgensen and R. A. De Cou.

Joint Social Planned by Upper Classes for April 20.

The annual Junior-Senior reception is to be held on the evening of April 20. This is the report of the Junior-Senior reception committee which met last Friday evening for the purpose of arranging for this annual event of events. The committee further decided to assess each Junior twenty-five cents to defray expenses of the social.

The reception is planned to be surpassing in its facilities for entertainment. The frolicsome capers that are to beguile the evening are a confidential secret known to the committee alone. Invitations are to be sent to all Seniors, but lest thru a change of address or some other circumstance, any Senior should fail to receive his card, the committee is anxious that all Seniors consider themselves invited. Miss Rhoades, chairman of the committee, declares in her jovial manner that there will be no charges at the door and that all will be entertained.

STUDENTS DO CARE.

Question of Text Books at Cost Appeals Vivially.

In section 15 of the act to establish the University of Nebraska provision is made for the furnishing of text books to the students at cost by the Regents of the University. The act was passed in 1869 but no action of any kind had been taken either by the Regents or the legislature, up to the time when Representative Cone of Saunders County recently proposed an amendment to the general appropriation bill for the University, providing that the $5,000 appropriated for "books" should be used for this purpose. This amendment has met with the approval of the Board of Regents and will soon come before the legislature. The argument has been used before when this matter was up for consideration, that University students did not care very much whether they got their books at cost or not, but now an effort will be made to show that this contention is altogether erroneous.

All students who have been interviewed are very decided in their expressions in favor of the amendment and it is urged that all with any influence or acquaintance at the Capitol get busy and show their attitude toward the question.

FOOTBALL GAMES

WITH WISCONSIN AND IOWA DECLARED OFF.

"Big Nine" Schools Refuse Ruling of the Nebraska Board—St. Louis Thanksgiving—Other Notes.

"Nebraska will not meet Wisconsin and Iowa on the gridiron next fall."

This announcement was made by Manager Eager yesterday afternoon upon the receipt of letters from the two "Big Nine" schools, stating that they would not play Nebraska next year unless the Cornhuskers would agree to be governed by the "Three-year Rule" and the "A. B. Rule." Mr. Eager immediately notified the two Conference schools that the Nebraska board was still "standing pat" and would not recede from its position. Negotiations for games with Wisconsin and Iowa will be dropped.

The two rules which Nebraska would not agree to are:

1. "No student shall participate in intercollegiate athletics for more than three years in the aggregate. To be effective September 1, 1906, except for students who participate in intercollegiate athletics in the academic year 1905-06; for these it will be effective December 1, 1906."

2. "Participation shall be confined to students who have not graduated from any department of a college or university. Effective September 1, 1906."

The failure of Nebraska to agree with Wisconsin and Iowa upon these rules, means that other schools will have to be secured for games on October 26 and November 16, as these dates were scheduled to be filled by the "Big Nine" teams. Manager Eager expects no trouble in this line, however, for there are many strong elevens that wish to meet the Cornhuskers next fall, and are anxious to have the dates left vacant by Wisconsin and Iowa.

The Thanksgiving date in the Cornhusker schedule has been filled and Nebraska will play the football team of the University of St. Louis at the Missouri metropolis on turkey day next fall.

K. C. Meet.

The second handicap indoor meet of the K. C. A. C. which was held last Friday night was a decided success. About three hundred athletes competed, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska Universities, William Jewell College, K. C. A. C. and M. A. C. being among the organizations represented. One world's record was equaled in the invitation fifty yard dash, Archie Hahn of Michigan reeling it off in five and two-fifths seconds, and all the performances were high class. Benedict won the half mile in an exciting race, passing his last competitor within ten feet of the tape. The time one minute fifty-nine and four fifths seconds with a ten yard handicap was remarkably fast. Alden ran a good race in the mile, finishing third. This event was won from scratch by Jackson of Missouri, one of the fastest distance runners the Missouri Valley has ever produced. None of the other of the Nebraska contingent scored any point altho the men did fully as well as (Continued on page 3.)
