WISCONSIN WINS.

University two years ago. He also took part in the political club debate at the University last fall. He was president of his class the first semester, 1905, and is chief-justice of the supreme court of the College of Law. Samuel M. Rinaker, 1909, of Beatrice, was awarded the valedictory address when he graduated from the Beatrice High School in 1905. He was a member of the Beatrice debate team for three years. He won a place on the squad in his Freshman year, has been president of his class twice, and passed the Rhodes Scholarship examination this year, which makes him eligible for the $6,000, four-year scholarship at Oxford University. He is a member of Alpha Theta Chi fraternity. Joseph M. Swenson, 1908, is a graduate of the Omaha High School, which he represented on five victorious debating teams. He won the unusual honor of representing the University in inter-collegiate debate in his freshman year, being a member of the team that defeated Washington University. He was president of his class the first semester last year, and has high general rank as a scholar. Clyde C. McWhinney, Law 1908, of Lincoln, graduated at the Alliance High School. He was a member of the squad last year, and he won one of the scholarship prizes in the College of Law last year. He is the president of the University Forum.

Nebraska-Illinois.
 Byron E. Yoder, 1908, William R. King, 1908, and George M. Tunison, 1907, with Frank C. Bullita, 1908, as alternate, composed the Nebraska team which debated against Illinois at Urbana last night. Illinois was represented by C. A. Marshall, 1908, S. L. Large, 1909, Dean S. Doran, 1909. Nebraska supported the negative side of the question and Illinois upheld the affirmative side. In both the main and rebuttal speeches the debaters spoke in the order given above.

The Illinois Team.
 C. A. Marshall, 1908, is a member of the Adelpic Literary Society and was an alternate on the Illinois-Indiana team. S. L. Large, 1909, is a member of the Philomathean Literary Society and was a participant in the Freshman-Sophomore debate in 1905. Dean S. Doran, 1909, is a member of the Philomathean Literary Society and was a member of the Freshman-Sophomore debate in 1906.

The Nebraska Debaters.
 William R. King, 1908, of Osceola, is the son of Senator King. He is a graduate of the Osceola High School. This is his first year on the squad. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta. George M. Tunison, 1907, is a graduate of the Cozad High School. He was a member of the squad last year. He is prominent in various ways in college life. He is studying law, and belongs to the Delta Upsilon fraternity. Byron E. Yoder, 1908, is from Topeka, Indiana, where he did a good deal of debating. He is business manager of the Daily Nebraskan. He participated in the political club debate last fall. He belongs to the Delta Upsilon.

Frank C. Bullita, 1908, of Burchard, Nebr., graduated from the Burchard High School in 1902. He represented that school for two years in the South-eastern Nebraska High School Debating League. He is taking the Literary course and intends to study law. This is his first year on the University debating squad.
