FOUR AND 1-2 DOLLARS
The University Contributes More Money to China Relief Fund.

Yesterday the response to the opportunity of giving to the famine relief fund amounted to four dollars and a half. Such amount does reflect much credit to the University as a place of philanthropy. Probably the matter has not yet been stirred up enough; anyway it is hoped the returns will amount to more at "quitting time" this evening. There are undoubtedly others who intend contributing, but who have not yet gotten to the point. It is needless to say that promptness means everything. Letting a day go by without helping means letting some wretch suffer thru twenty-four hours more of misery, that is all. It really looks one-sided. Those giving yesterday were A. E. Long, $1; A. R. Wilson, $1; Gertrude Moore, $1; J. R. Green, $.50; C. L. C., $1. The total amount subscribed to the present is $39.50.
