U. OF N. CLUB BANQUET.

Dean Pound at Chicago Before Alumni Association There.

The following taken from a Chicago paper gives an account of the University of Nebraska Club's banquet held at the Victoria last Thursday evening:

"The commercial spirit which has made great strides thruout the country, so much so that in past years it has been customary for academic bred men to apologize for their learning when they rose to address an audience, has risen and fallen. And in every walk of life the man of academic training has been sought as the means of rescue."

In this vein Roscoe Pound, Dean of the Law School of the University of Nebraska, at the first annual banquet of the Chicago Alumni Association of that institution, placed in disrepute the theory that a "business education and training" is sufficient for a successful man of today.

"Men of academic training are being ejected as railroad chiefs," he said. "The 'self-made' lawyers who thought they could satisfy the needs of justice have tried, and gloomy was their failure. The academic trained lawyer is taking his place. We called in the academic trained men, the chemists, and showed Mr. Business Man that he was a failure. Today the era of commercialism stands discredited everywhere."

Dean Pound came as a substitute for Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews, who is ill at his residence in Lincoln, Neb. The banquet which was held at the Victoria hotel, was attended by seventy-five alumni. David L. Killen was toastmaster. Frank G. Bruner, physiological expert of the Chicago board of education delivered a humorous toast on "Brain Storms." Other speakers were W. H. Manss, Mrs. C. E. Humiston, Phillip J. Maguire, H. H. Nicholson and Harry A. Reese.

Chicago students will give a play in the new "world language," Esperanto, within a few weeks.

A SOCIAL EVENING.

Junior-Senior Reception Pleases All Who Attend.

The Juniors feel especially elated over the unqualified success of the Junior-Senior reception held in Memorial Hall last Saturday evening. There were about two-hundred present, and the Seniors declare that in spite of the fact that among this number were some dozen or more "butt-inskies," from the ranks of the lower classmen, the evening was thoroly enjoyed by all.

The matter of getting everyone acquainted with everyone else was accomplished by labelling each individual with a tag bearing his name, which method rendered introductions thoroly informal and democratic. When all were duly labelled the young men were furnished with "chat programs," and soon the room was a-buzz with the discussions of such live, up-to-date topics as "Washington's Inauguration" and "Freshman Hats." As conversation began to lag, the couples could be seen one by one strolling to the tents of the Gypsy fortune-tellers, where they took an inquisitive peep into the future, to the utmost satisfaction of some and the profound disappointment of others.

Both vocal and piano music of a high class formed part of the program. Ice was served later in the evening, after which the hall was cleared for dancing, and the last hour or two was given up to an informal dance.

P. B. K. Initiation.

The initiation and dinner for those recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa will occur at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer, Seventeenth and G streets, next Thursday evening. The initiation will take place at 6 o'clock, this, to be followed by the dinner. Dean Davis makes the address of welcome to which a response will be made by a member of the Senior delegation. Following this several members of the faculty will speak.

Class baseball is to be introduced at Purdue this year.

ANOTHER GAME OFF

NEBRASKA AND MINNESOTA WILL NOT PLAY FOOTBALL.

Nebraska Still Shys at Conference Rules and Gophers Cannot Play under Other Rules.

Altho no official announcement has been made, it is certain that Minnesota will cancel the football game which is scheduled to be played with Nebraska at Minneapolis October 19.

The thing which will lead the Gophers to take such action is the ruling adopted by the representatives of the "Big Nine" Conference at Chicago recently which banished Michigan from the organization on account of the refusal of the Wolverines to accede to the same rules which had led the Cornhuskers to cancell dates with Wisconsin and Iowa rather than to accede to them.

It is more than possible that the rules adopted by the conference, which prohibit contests with teams that will not comply in full with conference regulations, will result in the withdrawal of some of the remaining members of the organization. Minnesota is already shying at the rules, and a concerted refusal of several of the organization might bring about a retraction of the rules. The rule which has aroused most of the trouble reads as follows:

"Resolved, That no conference college shall engage in athletic contests with any non-conference institution of a similar class—that is, one which competes with any member of the conference on a basis of athletic equality—except under the conference rules of eligibility."

Before this rule was adopted by the conference, Iowa and Wisconsin had refused to play the games which had been scheduled with the Cornhuskers unless the latter agreed to play under a strict interpretation of the conference regulations. Nebraska objected to the "A. B." rule and the three year eligibility rule, and the Nebraska athletic board adopted a flat-footed resolution which directed that no games should be scheduled by the athletic manager, which would preclude the participation in contests with other teams of athletes eligible except for the provisions of the rules which the badgers and hawkeyes had insisted upon. Following this action by the Nebraska board the Wisconsin and Iowa games were cancelled, and it is now difficult to figure out how either Nebraska or Minnesota can meet in view of the contradictory regulations that would have to be considered in drawing up a contract for the game, which has not yet been done.

Manager Eager is carrying on negotiations with Michigan and has high hopes of getting the Wolverines to fill the date in the Nebraska schedule which Minnesota's withdrawal will leave vacant. Colorado already has consented to play here October 26, taking the date which Iowa was to have, played with the Cornhuskers.

T. R. Hollingsworth, '08, has been compelled to leave school for the rest of this semester on account of illness.
