

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

WHEN BUYING YOUR CLOTHING

You can't tell by the looks of a suit how well it is going to wear. The cheapest garments are made to look pretty for sale purposes. It's after you have had the garments on your back and find that it begins to sag at the collar, bagg at the knees, look slouchy in the coat—that you know that you have underpaid.

Just remember that good tailoring and construction by skilled labor makes good materials into good clothes. It is in this quality of result that THE STERLING'S garments are convincingly best; the makers put as much style as service into them.
