TWENTY-THREE.

It will be noticed that at the University of Kansas the organization, the fraternity, the what-is-it known as Theta Nu Epsilon, has been disbanded, tabooed at the instance of the presidents of the various fraternities. It was felt that for the good of the University the affair ought to go.

Now there is a similar organization in this University. It is seldom heard of except as "manipulating" certain functions or "having a hand" in certain movements. Yes, there is another way it makes itself heard once in a while, too, and that is by a faint, specting men do not care to be associated with it.

This is a University, not a place for the congregation of men bent on having an hilarious, "speedy" time, bent on a course of life that develops low-lived criminals. From all appearances, this T. N. E. organization right here in this school deserves the same fate as that suffered by the order in Kansas.

Therefore, be it moved, Mr. Chairman, that the what-you-may-call-it known as Theta Nu Epsilon be made to betake itself hence out of this school, to vanish, to make itself scarce—quick!

An outline for a course in journalism is printed below, copied from the Indiana Daily Student:

"Indiana University has established a department of Journalism. The first two years of the course will be devoted to English history, languages and mathematics. In the third year the major work will be devoted to journalistic subjects, history and the theory of newspaper making. The fourth year will be given to practical experience. Courses of lectures by prominent newspaper men will be given throughout the course."

Fraternity men at Minnesota it is said, have not identified themselves with the Y. M. C. A. work as closely as the character of the association work has merited. Their attitude in the past has been one of almost total indifference.

Track Men, Attention!

All track men are requested to meet on the athletic field Monday afternoon promptly at 4 o'clock. The track squad will be photographed at that time.

The Geology class at Wisconsin University will start on May 3 for a ten-days' trip thru the Lake Superior mining region.

mysterious, vaguely-formed rumor of certain "big time" carried on by the aggregation. For the most part it is darkly shrouded in a silence altogether impenetrable.

And this very tendency of the organization to concealment, to lurking around in dark corners, to slipping down the back alleys, as it were, is a feature of it most open to criticism. If the fraternity is open and square and above board, why does it not come out and stand squarely before the public like other fraternities? When a thing wants to hide all the time, there is just one conclusion: it does not like the broad daylight.

It is understood that some of the local fraternities do not allow their men to enter the order. That speaks badly for it, too. Why don't they? The organization is immoral and immoral to such a degree that self-re-
