Cornhuskers Won a Slow Game Last Thursday.

The Nebraska baseball team defeated the Minnesota nine in a slow game at Minneapolis Thursday. The Cornhuskers won the game in the ninth inning. Freeland led off with a single, Hrubesky, batting for Dudgeon, struck out, and Blake got to first on Caldwell's error. Sleuter then hit for two bases and was brought home with the winning run on Rine's single. The home team, with the aid of the umpire, looked dangerous in the last of the ninth, but Marshall's high foul against the fence was caught by Riae, and the game was over. The score:
