Nebraskans at Panama.

Mr. H. P. Warren, who is an assistant engineer on the Panama railroad, and who is spending his vacation in Lincoln, gives the following account of Nebraska men whom he has met on the Zone: Charles R. Sargent, Law '04, is chief clerk for G. L. Campen, Superintendent of Public Works for Panama. L. M. Huntington, C. E. '03, is Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, under Mr. Campen. Charles Borg, Law '05, has a responsible position with the department of Law and Government. Mr. Warren reports that the above mentioned men are in the best of health and are doing very well in their positions.

The Engineering Society is making arrangements to bring E. E. Howard of the firm of Waddell & Harrington to the University to give a lecture on "Records." The firm of Waddell & Harrington is perhaps the foremost among bridge engineers in the country, and the society expects a very good talk from Mr. Howard, who is the chief man for the firm, and who has had very wide experience along his line.

Another explosion occurred in the Chemical laboratory yesterday afternoon in which G. S. Heffelbower had his hair and coat somewhat singed. He was making an experiment with benzine when the liquid became ignited and an explosion resulted. Fortunately no one was injured.

See the Sun.

The observatory will be open to the public from 1 to 3 p. m. today for a view of the sun. There is now quite a conspicuous group of sunspots visible on the solar surface.

Alpha Zeta fraternity will give a banquet at the Lindell hotel tonight. Governor Sheldon will be one of the guests. A list of toasts is to be responded to after the repast.

George Berger of the Kearney schools was a visitor at the University yesterday. While in the University Mr. Berger was known as "Stub" and was considered a great foot ball player.

Earl Fransworth, '03, has been visiting at the Delta Tau fraternity house for the past few days. It may be remembered that Mr. Fransworth while in University held the tennis championship of the west.

The Legislature Reference Bureau is being much used by students of Professor Aylsworth's class in politics. This class is doing work in drawing up original legislative bills.

The Historical Society recently received from Yale College the diary of one of its early presidents, President Stiles, who lived over one century ago. His work is found in three volumes.

Have you seen those swell $4.00 Oxfords at Sanderson's; they are beauties.
