JUNIORS MEET.

Talk About Bobsleds and Indulge in a Little Foolishness.

A Junior class meeting was held yesterday morning at which the only matter discussed was the Junior picnic to be held next Saturday. The committee pledged themselves to see that skates, bob-sleds and all other means of amusement suitable to the season would be on hand at the proper time.

After the meeting adjourned a pleasant little recreation was indulged in by the class and the chief form in which this desire for diversion found vent was the tossing of the reporter who had been detailed to cover this momentous event for the Nebraskan.

The Historical Society Library recently received a copy of the first volume of "Washington Papers," being the correspondence of George Washington to the Continental Congress.

C. A. Sunderlin, Ivy Day orator of '07, will deliver the commencement address to this year's graduating class at Weston.

The mid-week prayer meeting this evening will be led by Robert Ashby in the Association rooms.

Y. W. C. A. Campaign.

The University Y. W. C. A. will soon start a campaign to raise $400 to furnish their rooms. A good plan has been made for raising the money and the leaders of the organization expect to have little trouble in securing the desired sum.

Baseball Managers.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the four managers of the class baseball teams will meet on the athletic field to arrange for the championship games.

A circular letter is being sent out by the Historical Society to all the editors in Nebraska, asking for information to be used in a history of the Nebraska press. This volume will be written and published jointly by the State Historical Society and the Nebraska Press Association.

Professor Davison leaves today on a two weeks' trip thru the East to inspect agricultural schools. Pennsylvania and Cornell will be among the schools visited by Mr. Davison.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mabel Bennett, formerly a student in the University, to Mr. E. W. Julian, May 29.

The twentieth annual report of the Nebraska Experiment Station containing 16 pages has just been issued.

The Missouri state legislature has passed a bill prohibiting saloons within five miles of Columbia, where the State University is located. The bill now lacks only Governor Folk's signature to make it a law.

Purdue University has a baseball diamond which is reserved for the exclusive use of members of the faculty.
