LAWBOOK APPEARS

ANNUAL FROM LEGAL SCHOOL
ON SALE NOW.

Book Contains 100 Pages—Articles by Professors, Write-ups, Literary
Department and Joshes

The Law Book for the year 1907 went on sale rather ahead of the time set by the management for its appearance. The book contains exactly a hundred pages, is printed on good paper and tho, not expensively bound, makes a very presentable appearance.

It is divided, tho not very distinctly, into four departments; namely, articles by professors, biographies of the members of the three classes, literary department and Joshes. Half tones and etchings are scattered plentifully thru the publication and form one of its most pleasing features. Several of the cartoons are of especial merit.

In the first department, Dean Pound writes on "Petty foggism," Professor Hastings on "Nebraska's Flag Law Upheld," Professor Costigan on "Contracts," Professor Ayers on "Some of the Things a Lawyer Ought to Remember," and Professor Maxey on "The Progress of International Arbitration." Half-tones of all the professors, save Dr. Maxey, are placed in this section. Then follow individual cuts and write-ups of the Seniors. The cuts are those prepared in the first place for the Cornhusker and so are uniform in design, as far as the borders go with those of the larger book. The plan followed in these write-ups is to give merely the principal facts regarding the career of the man in question, high school honors, and so forth. Then a group of paragraphs, after the section containing the half-tones, is devoted to the special "remarks" befitting each person. It is the same plan that is followed in the Cornhusker. "Biographies" of each of the members of the two larger classes are also given, but these classes are photographed in large groups. These biographies are written in good form and are one of the best sections of the book.

"The Book of Records" is the name applied to a set of happenings or supposed happenings of the present school year. Following are a couple of examples:

"Oct. 5—Affolter elected president of the Senior laws."

"Oct. 6—The 'rag' has its first spasm, caused by the aforesaid election."

The literary department proper consists of only a few stories and poems tho a number of other contributions really belonging in the Josh department are here to be found. This lack of organization in this part of the book is, perhaps, the feature most open to criticism, tho there is some excuse for this owing to the brief time open to the editors for work.

The Josh department contains a number of excellent etchings and a number of good features as "Where Law"

JUNIOR PICNIC.

1908 People Spend a Moist Afternoon at Epworth Park.

The Juniors held their long anticipated picnic at Epworth Park last Saturday afternoon, leaving the Library in special cars at 1:30. No program had been arranged, but a baseball game by the co-eds proved a very interesting feature. A game between the high school and the Junior boys was interrupted—fortunately for the Juniors—by a rain.

The members of the Glee Club present gave several selections which were well applauded, and a duet by Miss Harold and Miss Rhoades was especially well received.

All sorts of diversions were resorted to that everyone might find amusement, but secluded benches proved most popular for some reason or another. The boats were kept constantly busy and no small show of skill was displayed by some of the co-eds as they rowed about the muddy waters of the lake.

All would have gone well had it not been for the successful efforts of some one to get the lion's share of the lunch. After disposing of the remains, the crowd dispersed at 5:30 amid songs and moisture, and all well pleased with the Juniors.

The committee report 113 present, which insures against any financial difficulties.

Leon Pepperberg, '05, who has been visiting with University friends since Monday last, left yesterday evening for southern Utah in the interests of the U. S. Geological Survey.

TEAM RETURNS.

Baseball Aggregation Gets Back From Long Eastern Trip.

The baseball team returned Sunday morning from the long trip. The team was decidedly unfortunate, losing the greatest part of its games. It was handicapped by losing its first baseman just before starting on the trip, and as usual on a long journey, the men were more or less used up and in rather poor condition for some of the later games. The best work the team did was in defeating Minnesota, winning the game 8-7 in an uphill struggle. They also played Wisconsin very close, being beaten 2-3, and beat James Milliken in a brilliant eleven-inning game. The team played thirteen games on its trip, traveling thru Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana. The men who made the trip were Carroll, Ward, Blake, Hrubesky, Watson, Dudgeon, Beltzer, Rine Sleuter, Freeland and Bellamy. The schedule with the scores is given below:

May 4, Ames College, 0-9.
May 6, Brinnell, 4-11.
May 7, Iowa, 2-5.
May 9, Cornell, Ia., 4-3.
May 9, Minnesota, 8-7.
May 10, Decorah, 3-4.
May 11, Wisconsin, 2-3.
May 13, Beloit, 0-2.
May 14, Notre Dame, 0-4.
May 15, Purdue, 2-8.
May 16, James Milliken, 1-0.
May 17, Knox, 1-8.
May 18, Monmouth, 2-7.

Following is the table of the batting averages of the team:

	A.B.	H.	P.C.
Rine	65	19	.292
Sleuter	67	18	.269
Carroll	55	11	.200
Hrubesky	30	6	.200
Watson	42	8	.190
Beltzer	66	12	.185
Blake	35	4	.114
Freeland	62	7	.113
Bellamy	60	6	.100
Ward	25	1	.040
Total	502	91	.181

Union Pin.

The Union Literary Society has stepped up with the rest of University organizations now and has secured for itself an emblem whereby its members can be distinguished. The pin is of gold and a neat design. The letter U in the center is set with small blue and white stones, the colors of the society.

J. C. Page, '08, left yesterday for western Nebraska, where he will work during the summer for the Tri-state Land company. He will likely return for school at the beginning of the next semester.

CLOSES TODAY

ART EXHIBIT TO CLOSE SOONER THAN WAS EXPECTED.

Makes Room for Photographers' Association—Hopes to Purchase Pictures—Stockholders Elected.

Owing to some misunderstanding, the Art Exhibit is forced to close promptly at noon today to give place to the exhibits of the Photographers' Association. It had been the intention to hold the exhibition open until the beginning of the May Festival, May 22, but a conflict of dates has made necessary the present action.

The Art Exhibit has been the source of much profit to those both of the University and of the city who are interested in the art of painting. The exhibit this year drew a larger per cent of students than it has ever before succeeded in interesting, and the amount of season tickets sold was somewhat above the usual number. The various schools of the city have respectively taken half-holidays to visit the gallery, and the children have shown much appreciation.

The series of lectures held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week during the exhibit was a great help to those desiring a fuller appreciation of art, and Miss Hayden's analytical criticisms proved of especial value.

It has been the hope of the association to purchase one or more of the paintings for the art gallery, but it has not yet been definitely decided as to whether this will be done or not. There are a number of paintings that have taken the eye of the association, and should it be decided to make a purchase, there will probably be some considerable preliminary discussion.

Among the visitors of the exhibit last Friday were Miss E. C. Salisbury, instructor in china painting and oil colors at Beatrice; Judge J. S. Cooley of Omaha.

Eight new stockholders have been taken into the association this season, viz., Clinton R. Lee, J. S. Ewart, Dr. Inez Philbrick, E. J. Hainer, H. Herpolshelmer, W. A. Selleck, and Helen C. Sundean.

Company Banquet

B Company held a pleasant banquet at the Lindell hotel last Saturday evening. About thirty-five of the men were present and every feature of the affair was made pleasant to all. All the officers and non-coms were called upon for speeches, and several talks, calculated to arouse cup-winning enthusiasm, were heard.
