ON SALE SATURDAY.

Tickets for Senior Play to Be Available to Students.

Tickets for Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," which is to be given by the Class of 1907 in the Oliver Theater matinee and evening performances on Tuesday, June 11; will go on sale to University students Saturday afternoon, May 25, in Memorial Hall.

The sale will begin at 1 o'clock, when seats may be purchased by Seniors who have paid their class dues by that time. At 3 o'clock the sale of seats will be thrown open to the general university public. After Saturday there will be no public sale of seats until June 8, when tickets will be available at the Oliver. Prices for the evening performance will be 75, 50 and 25 cents; and for the matinee; 50 and 25 cents. All tickets on sale will be for reserved seats.

Seniors who have paid dues will be permitted to select seats in the order in which their payments have been made, to the extent of two tickets each. The remaining two tickets due will be chosen by lot. It is hoped that in this way tickets may be distributed in a manner satisfactory to all concerned and that all unfairness in distribution may be avoided.

Rehearsals for the "Taming of the Shrew" have been under way for the past three months, and under the competent direction of Professor F. W. Losey the play is assuming shape rapidly. Contrary to the expectations of some who have been interested in the progress of the play, the cast which has been selected from the class of 1907 has proved itself worthy of the task of interpreting in really satisfactory fashion one of the most interesting and sparkling of all Shakespeare's comedies, and two performances of very real merit are assured.

The courtesies of the evening will be extended to the Pan-Hell dancers at Dalrymple's, 13th & N.

There is no time like Harris' time. If your watch isn't up to date you better see Harris, the watch doctor, 1137 O St.
