OFF FOR KANSAS.
Track Team Leaves for the Jayhawker Stronghold Today.
The 'Varsity track team leaves today at 1:30 for Lawrence, Kansas, where a dual meet will be held with Kansas University tomorrow. The team will spend the night in Kansas City and make the run out to Lawrence tomorrow morning.
The meet promises to be very close, judging from the records that have been made by both teams. All the men are in fairly good shape. The team will arrive in Lincoln Sunday morning at 7 o'clock.
The following men will make the trip:
Burruss, Coe, Perry, Morgan, Davis, Alden, Bauman, McDonald, G. B., Dunlap, Weller, Chaloupka, McDonald, D. T., Knobe, Huger, Benedict.
Dr. Clapp will accompany the team.

The St. Paul Dispatch of May 17 came out with a large cut of President and Mrs. Hodgman standing with Mr. Bryan on the campus of Macalester College. Professor Hodgman held until recently, it will be remembered, the position of High School Inspector.
