The intercollegiate committee of the Y. W. C. A. has received a pennant from the Delta Gamma sorority. The association hopes to have a pennant from every sorority and girls' organization in the University to place in the new rooms along with the new pillows and college pennants which the rooms and intercollegiate committees are making plans to gather during the summer.

Professor Taylor has been invited by letter to edit a section of the Review of Current Economics Literature, his department being the criticism of all economic writings of the present time. He will perhaps decline because the library facilities here will not permit of extensive research.
