FOR 1907-8.

The Nebraskan takes this opportunity of introducing its new staff to the University public, with the hope that due indulgence be granted us in the possible errors and mistakes we may be responsible for. As was the case a year ago, so it is now, the staff is not as yet completely organized, but we hope in the near future to have a full force working overtime if necessary to make this paper a success. It is in this effort to make the Nebraskan a good and useful paper that we earnestly solicit the co-operation of the faculty and student body. The support of every student is needed not only in the matter of his subscription, although that is important, but also in the way of personal interest. This is a student publication and as such is devoted to no special interest, but to the general interest of the University. In view of the above facts, it is to be hoped that the suggestions above be promptly acted upon.

The Nebraskan is not the only thing that needs "boosting," there is our football team for instance. Nebraska never had fairer prospects for turning

REES' WOVEN AND STEEL
PLATE INITIALS AND NAMES

TO THOSE who have their laundry done away from home, embroidered initials, monograms and names on tape are an absolute necessity. Laundries, and even your own servants, are prone to make mistakes, but with your wearing apparel plainly and neatly marked, the saving from loss will astonish you.

To the traveller or the young folks attending schools or colleges away from home, name tapes will be thoroughly appreciated. In case of accidents, your name on your clothing helps to identify you among strangers.

We keep constantly on hand every variety of woven "two letter" initials and monograms—orders can be filled for three or more letters or full names, being now instead of abroad in six, as heretofore.

For those who cannot afford the time necessary for weaving, hand-somely steel engraved initial names on tape, in black, navy blue or red, can be had in one week.

REIS' initials, monograms or names, whether woven or engraved, are guaranteed absolutely fast color.

We extend a hearty welcome to all students, both old and new, now entering upon another year of college work. It is our earnest wish that you prosper in the chosen lines of your work and that at the same time we can each of us find time to advance the interests of "Old Nebraska" in every possible way.
