GRIDIRON TALK.

The Athletic Board has authorized the establishment of a training table for the football players and one will be opened at a leading hotel a week from Monday. The table will be conducted as last year's was, each man paying for his own board.

Manager Eager has been appointed assistant coach and will hold the position until another man can be secured for it.

The basketball ballots for captain were opened at a meeting of the Athletic Board this week and Paul Bell, 1908, was declared elected.

Season football tickets have been placed on sale at Harry Porter's and the Co-Op. Reserved seat tickets are $4 and the general admission ones sell at $3. A season ticket saves the purchaser the price of three games.
