MANY NEW RULES.

pledged or initiated in violation of the rules of the Inter-Fraternity Council shall be liable to expulsion from the University, and the chapter concerned shall be publicly reprimanded as directed by the Council.

Inter-Sorority Council Rules, 1907-08.

Adopted June 8, 1907.

I
Rushing and pledging shall be allowed during matriculation week. There shall be no further rushing or pledging until after the mid-semester reports are filed. No student may be initiated until the end of the semester. No student who is delinquent may be pledged or initiated.

II
The standard of eligibility to a Sorority in the University of Nebraska shall be twelve hours of collegiate work. With the exception of Chi Omega who shall be allowed to fulfill the requirements of her national constitution in regard to regular students.

III
No student who is eligible to a sorority in the University of Nebraska shall be rushed or bidden by a sorority member either active or alumna from September 21, 1907, until the first mid-semester reports are filed with the Registrar.

IV
No student pledged in violation of these rules may be initiated until one year from date of such violation.

V
Any violation of these rules shall be reported to the chairman of the Inter-Sorority Council. Such complaints must be written and signed by the complaining sorority.

VI
All written complaints shall be investigated by the Chairman of the Inter-Sorority Council and referred to the Council at her discretion.

VII
Students now pledged to sororities may be allowed initiation any time during the first semester 1907-08 if their names are filed with the chairman of the Inter-Sorority Council on June 8, 1907.

VIII
Students who have been bidden during matriculation week and whose answers have not been given, may be pledged before the mid-semester reports, if their names have been filed with the Chairman of the Inter-Sorority Council by six o'clock p. m. September 21.
