WILL SURPRISE US?
 Coach Cole has said nothing about the line-up for Saturday's game and it is doubtful whether he will give out anything definite before the contest.
 It is the general opinion of the followers of the team's work, however, that some of the men will be given try-outs in new positions then.
 The South Dakota game will be called at 3:30 Saturday afternoon. Admission to grandstand or bleachers will be fifty cents.

FOOTBALL IN IOWA.
 souri valley conference and the prospect of membership has had a great deal to do with cleaning up the situation. Then again there has been a well-defined movement toward fewer games, and even those institutions where the five-game limit was disregarded last fall, are shortening their schedules.

From Other Colleges.
 The University of Minnesota freshmen won the class scrap with the sophomores in their annual battle last Saturday. It was a long and bloody fray.

Drake University has added another department to its list of courses. A school for the training of nurses is the latest college in the Des Moines institution.

Preparations are being made at Princeton college for the annual fall meet. This will be on October 15, and is for the purpose of trying out the freshmen and getting a line on material for the spring's work.

Grinnell is very enthusiastic over their football prospects for this season. Scarlet and Black supporters are circulating the report that their eleven will be stronger than for many seasons, and consequently they are anticipating a string of victories.
