year's home on September 28th was attended by 300 young women of the University, who unanimously agreed that they had had "a royal good time." The Sunday meetings held in U. 106, altho not largely attended, have proved real spiritual uplifts.

Noon meetings are held each day in the association room. Those on Monday, Wednesday and Friday come at 11:50 and those on Tuesday and Thursday at 11:30. The praise service which comes regularly on Wednesday of each week is the special feature of the noon meetings and is always well attended. The association is always glad to welcome anyone to these meetings and it extends an invitation to all University girls to attend its services.

Saturday night Miss Vibbard entertained the small cabinet at a dinner, which was followed by the first cabinet meeting of the year. Plans were made for future work by sixteen girls enthusiastic for the best good of the University and its student members. The list of cabinet members has been somewhat extended to include the chairmanship of several new committees. Several vacancies have not been permanently filled as yet, but with these exceptions the cabinet is as follows: President, Carrie Schultz; vice-president, Viola Barnes; secretary, Carrie Strong; treasurer, Elsie Adams; general secretary, Ida B. Vibbard; assistant secretary, Maude Canger. Chairmen—Bible study, Virginia Zimmers; missionary, Eva Arnold; social, —; finance, Nellie Ludden; practical service, Evangeline Strickland; intercollegiate, Benlah Rader; rooms, Beth Huston; college settlement, Mabel Snyder; devotional, Lillian Hrubesky; visiting, Jean Sullivan; bulletin, Ruth Easterday; convention, —.

A number of last year's Y. W. C. A. girls are located as follows: Mary Billing, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago; Florence Parmelee (Student Volunteer), in Y. W. C. A. work at Utica, N. Y.; Myrtle Kauffman, lunch secretary, City Y. W. C. A.; Pearl Archibald, state secretary for New York and New Jersey; Anna Van Zandt and Helen Redington, both at Dr. White's Training School, New York City; Grace Coppock, Y. W. C. A., China; Lena Nelson, India (missionary); Fannie Drake, Rochester, N. Y. (Y. W. C. A.).

The Y. W. C. A. has been presented with a handsome reading table by Mr. W. J. Bryan. This table corresponds to the one now in the association's room given by Miss Anne Rogers.
