TWENTY MEN TO GO.

up for the Nebraska game, the Chicago contest probably being the big game in the eye of the Gopher coach. To win from Nebraska will require a hard pull, but with this week of practice the rooters believe the Minnesotans will have a sufficient strength to turn the trick. Victory either way will not be thru a high score.
"Save in the case of Woodrick, Minnesota came thru the Ames game without serious injury. The dislocated shoulder of the unfortunate 'Peggy' will doubtless keep him out of the running for the rest of the season. Case is to take his examination some time this week, and if he succeeds in clearing himself of his condition, will appear against Nebraska Saturday. This will put Young and Case at the tackle positions. Dunn, too, will get in against Nebraska, and this is putting the rooters on the conjecture bench as to the possible shift in the team. Rademacher may be sent to the end and Dunn put in at full-back. Nothing is known as to what the coach intends to do in this matter, and if there is such a shift it will not be known until the team comes on the field Saturday."

Delinquent Students.

The committee on delinquent students wishes to call attention to Rule 22 of the Student's Handbook. Rule 22—A student who, in any semester, is not satisfactorily carrying at least twelve (12) hours is debarred from representing the University that semester on any athletic or debate team or board, on a glee, mandolin, or dramatic club, on the staff of any college publication or on any other University organization; moreover a student who fails to pass in twelve (12) hours at the end of a semester is debarred from representing the University in any capacity the semester following. In case a student in any of the above named enterprises fails, any semester, to carry satisfactorily the work or any part thereof for which he is registered, the committee on delinquent students may, at its discretion lessen the hours of such student's registration. Copies of the "Rules and Regulations Governing Students" may be had at the Registrar's office.
